CARING CELEBRATING DIVERSITY

Embracing Cultural Diversities in Every Life

"As devastated we are with our mother's passing, we were comforted that you helped us say our final farewells in a manner that she would have appreciated. Mum looked peaceful. You made us feel we were in good hands."

Ho family, May 2011

PLAN IT YOUR WAY

Your wishes, your song, your words, your way.
Explore how you can start in a few simple steps:

- Know the procedures, options and costs
- Burial or Cremation
- Final resting place
(casket/coffin and site)
- Choose a funeral planner
- Religious, non-religious or no service
- Personalise your goodbye
(from your favourite photos, flowers, last farewells to what you want to wear)

GIVING YOU PEACE OF MIND

Saying goodbye can be hard, especially for those who are left behind. At every step of the final journey, our culturally diverse team is devoted to helping you and your family with every fine detail. So that you can devote more time with your family.

"Everyone said it was a fitting farewell to our Grandma. Your celebrant gave a warm and honest tribute, almost as if she knew her in person. Thank you."

Pang family, July 2014

ESSENCE OF TIME TO PLAN

Having the essence of time to plan ahead means you can embrace your life memories with your family, and personalise the way you want to say goodbye. This can start when you're healthy, when in a nursing home or when death is an imminent reality. There are many options, Galaxy Funerals can help you find a fitting tribute for a final journey.

TRANSPARENCY IN COSTS

Understanding the costs can help you take control. Some are fixed government charges, but there are areas where you can personalise to suit your budget. Here is a reference:
