“ Dear Aunty Eve, Jennifer, Vivien, and family

We're sharing in your sadness, and thinking of all of you as you celebrate Uncle Hudson's remarkable life. We're forever grateful to Uncle Hudson. It was his support that resulted in our family migrating to Australia, and his encouragement that led us to the church community. He's touched countless lives including ours, and has left such an incredible legacy. We're sending much love to you and keeping you in our prayers.

“ Our beloved dear brother Hudson is now with the Lord! We will all miss him dearly. I still remember vividly one early morning in 1959, when our family sat around the dining table to have a breakfast banquet to bid Hudson farewell. Hudson was soon to depart to study in far away Australia. Even though I was almost five years old, I understood that I would not see my brother for a long, long time. No more Hudson around to play card games with or to sit together at our round table for family meals... so, I retreated to my bed, drew my blankets over my head and sobbed uncontrollably!

Three and half years later, Hudson came back to Hong Kong for a short visit. I have no words to describe my joy and excitement to have Hudson back home during that time. I remember the three koala bears he brought back for his three little sisters to play with. In those days, the koala toys were not soft nor cuddly but it still made me feel warm and fuzzy inside. I always cherished the gift that Hudson brought to us from Australia and the warm fuzzy feeling lingers on.

You will always be our dear brother Hudson in our hearts! I am so grateful that we had a cheerful FaceTime chat on November 6, 2021. It was beautiful to hear Hudson declare that God is good! Now you are in the loving arms of Jesus; Rest In Peace, dear brother Hudson! Love from Diana, Tim, Michelle, Christina and family!

“ Dear Eve, Jennifer and Vivian,
Hudson will meet the Lord with his signature smile, kindness and gentleness. May the perpetual light shine upon him and may his soul rise in peace and rise in glory.

“ My girls and I would like to send our condolences to Auntie Eve & family on the loss of Uncle Hudson.

He was so loving and personable since I knew him from a young age at CCC Camperdown. Uncle Hudson would always present himself at various gatherings and presentations, giving up his time and effort to encourage others and sharing his wisdom.

Uncle Hudson watched me grow and met my 4 daughters, presenting them with awards at CCC Chinese School, seeing them at Church always with a smile. May he Rest In Peace and continue to watch over us from Heaven.

“ So many fond memories of working with Hudson in Bennelong with Mr Howard and beyond the area since then. Always smiling, positive and happy, Hudson was a constant source of counsel, wisdom and strength. He loved people, life and getting results - and that he did in spades. Our deep condolences to Eve and family on the passing of our dear friend Hudson. Vale a great Australian.

Our deepest condolences for your loss.

Hudson was a man of great distinction. He had lived his life with numerous achievements and touched many lives in a positive way.

We witnessed him struggle through his illness in the past months and he was still able to maintain a cheerful and upbeat demeanour to those around.

Hudson, you'll always be remembered. Rest in peace.

Eve, Jenny & Vivien - we hope that all the pleasant memories of him can in some way help you through this difficult period.

We will treasure the many memories we have of him - the stories, eating good food and drinking red wine. It was a privilege to know him and call him family.

My deepest condolences for your loss. Mr. Chen's absence will be sorely felt throughout the family and community. It was always wonderful to see him as a super hands on grandpa at Hans, Denzel and Xavier's ginormous birthday bashes. And I was always heartened to see him and Mrs. Chen support the annual Brain Treks in Hong Kong. Jennifer spoke often about his amazing community service and his dedication to family. She was always beaming with pride when she talked about him. May God bless your family in your mourning.

“ Hudson left an indelible mark on the Liberal Party, through decades of work helping the organisation to engage with the Chinese-Australian community. He became actively engaged in the Liberal Party around 1975, first getting involved, supporting the late former Prime Minister, Sir William McMahon.

Over time, he wanted to encourage fellow Chinese-Australians to get involved and join our Party. With Benjamin Chow AO, he formed and co-Chaired the NSW Liberal Party Chinese Council – a position he held until his passing. An extraordinarily active group, they have hosted Prime Ministers and Premiers for the annual Chinese New Year Chinatown Walk, as well as many other community events. Indeed, Hudson was instrumental in convincing the former Premier Barry O'Farrell and the NSW Government to light up the Sydney Opera House in red for the annual Chinese New Year celebrations.

He leaves an enduring legacy of what our country represents – an immigrant experience that embraces our core values and shares with us their rich cultural heritage.

We extend our condolences to Eve and her family and many friends in the Liberal Party, who are all mourning his passing.

“ I first met Hudson at Haymarket in 1983 while studying in Sydney. Though being a short encounter, I have been deeply impressed by his devotion and vigor for the development of the Catholic Community. 30 years later I met him in Darwin at the CCC Forum while he was one of the senior leaders of all the CCC in Australia. I found him to be still the Hudson that I used to know - friendly, accommodating, vibrant, polite, humble, rational, noble, with a wealth of wisdom and knowledge for everyone to share.

I am saddened to hear of his passing. On behalf of PCCC, we bid farewell to Hudson as he embarks on his journey to the promised land. May we meet once again in heaven above. Our deepest condolence to his family and fellow brothers and sisters in Sydney.

“ Our deepest condolences to Eve & family! We truly lost a great Chen's legacy. Hudson was a man of God. In his last stage of life, he always praised our God. "God is good" was imprinted in his heart & proclaimed in his mouth. Though we are in great sorrow of his departure to be with our good God, He truly set Hudson free from any suffering. Rejoice in God for He is good!

“ Dear Eve and family,

I'm terribly sorry to learn of Hudson's passing. Hudson leaves behind him a great legacy through the lives he touched and the generations he inspired to carry on his work. Hudson was always such a warm and gregarious individual who put the community first, sought to advance the Liberal Party cause and wanted to see Australians of Chinese ancestry take their rightful place as part of our representative democracy. I will always be grateful for Hudson's support and friendship. On the eve of the 2019 election at a Chinese New Year event the ABC were filming for a story and Hudson was worried that he was a target of the story and suggested I might want to move away from him. I said to him then, "Hudson, you've been my friend for nearly twenty years, I never want to move away from you." Hudson remains my friend, but is now in another place. I pass my sincerest condolences on to Eve and all of the family. Hudson was greatly loved and will be forever missed.

“ Uncle Hudson will be dearly missed by so many.

I know will miss him, a lot. My warmest condolences to Auntie Eve

Uncle Hudson has impact so many of us in a positive way. He certainly has in a life changing way for me.

During a really challenging time in the Party for me, Uncle Hudson showed me empathy and understanding. He would catch up with me, listen, and really be there for me. It would have been convenient to ignore me, but instead he did the opposite and gave me the opportunity to set up the Liberal Party Chinese Youth Council.

Uncle Hudson nurtured not only me, but a lot of other young people who call him a mentor and dear friend. These include Lawrence Li, Cheeseth Chey, Evon Siu and Ivan Ong. He and Auntie Eve would host us on countless occasions at their place - always showing us hospitality. More so, he shared a sense of excitement and hope for the future. He would always inspire and motivate us to do more good for the community. We all miss him so much.

Uncle Hudson would always be encouraging me to achieve my dreams and I would always remember him - and to pay it forward for him.

I will certainly miss hanging out with him, and sharing more good times together. See you again one day Uncle Hudson, love you “ Both my wife and I have special connections with Hudson and his family. We discovered that I had gone to the same school in Hong Kong, and my wife has distant relative connections.

However, it is through community activities in Australia that we got to know them more intimately. We recognize Hudson as a generous and dedicated member of society, and well supported by his loving family, with high-achieving children.

We feel Hudson should celebrate a life well lived. We wish his family well and assure them of our love and support.

“ My sincere condolences to Hudson’s family. I thank God for Hudson this faithful servant in his work in building up the CCCs not only in Sydney, but also in encouraging other communities across Australia. When I first explored the possibilities of giving missions in the various Chinese Catholic communities in Australia, it was Hudson who contacted me and did a lot of the foot work, and when I arrived, he received me with such warmth and hospitality. May the Lord wash him in His mercy, and receive him into glory.

“ Hudson has touched the lives of so many people with his warmth and generosity of spirit. Always devoting himself to charitable causes and serving others, Hudson was also instrumental to introducing Liberal Party candidates to the Chinese media back in the early days. To a true pillar of the Chinese community, Hudson, we are profoundly sad at your passing but we fondly remember and celebrate your life. To Eve and family, all our thoughts are with you during this time.

“ I remembered some 20 plus years ago I was introduced to CCC by Hudson and started teaching at the Sunday school at St Monica’s Church. It was my wish to introduce my sons to the Chinese Catholic Community. This was my first community involvement with the Chinese Community and I haven’t stopped since. We may have argued and agreed to disagree but we always work as a team eg the 2004 Tsunami appeal, fundraising for CCC Homes at Toongabbie and many many other community projects. Over the years I have learnt a lot from you. You will be missed by so many who has crossed path with you. May you Rest In Peace.

“ I do owe my enchanted political career to my beloved and dearly respected Uncle Hudson Chen. He introduced me to the Liberal Party fifteen years ago and took me under his wings (Liberal Party Chinese Council). He transformed me, by turning me into a community leader and taught me how to add value to Chinese society in a positive way.

Without Uncle Hudson's support who did ALL the moving and shaking within the Liberal Party for me, I would never have had the chance to run for the NSW Legislative Council in 2019. This candidacy was the pinnacle of my Australian political career, a stage in my life that I would never forget and cherish forever.

Thank you so much, Uncle Hudson, you were a great leader, fantastic mentor, wise guardian, and a wonderful friend. I'm going to miss you heaps and envy God that he now has you in his house. I'm sure your great work will continue in the House of Heaven.

Take care..... lots of love, Amy xoxoxoxo

“ The passing of Hudson Chen is a great loss to the Chinese community and we will miss him dearly. His charitable work throughout his life has help the needy, apart from his contribution to the Liberal Party

To Eve and family our hearts are with you in prayers and thoughts
