

Ms Judy Wing Ying So

June 19, 1983 - May 19, 2019

On 19 May 2019, Judy Wing Ying SO at age of 35 passed away peacefully with all the family beside her

Loved Daughter of Mr Kwong Tao So & Mrs Ho Wai Fong So

As I had brought her into the world, so I was with her as she left her all too short life, leaving me with the gift of unconditional love that she gave me and the inspiration of her courage.

She left so much undying love for her mother, father, sister, brothers, nephews and, for us all, the memories of her living life to the full, from the moment she and I shared her birth through her years with us, so full of love, fun, laughter and never a quitter.

She will be sorely missed every single day!

Love always,
Mum and Dad

“ Dear Judy,

Though we have not meet for too many times, I know that you are a nice lady and I am sure your family will have you live in their mind and love you deeply in their memories. Hove that the happy memories and your love to them will give them strength to face any difficult moment forever.

“ Dearest Judy,

I just heard of your passing away today.
I have been mostly interstate the last 6 months.
I kept telling you we were well overdue for a coffee.
I am sorry for not making the time my friend.
You loved your family, I remember all the stories you shared about your parents and siblings but especially your nephew's iPad antics.
Thank you for your friendship through the years.
You were always so humble and kind.
And had great taste in food lol
So many great memories.
I treasure the months we worked a few metres away from each other in Milsons Point 5-6 years ago.
Our random meetings at Noodle Markets or North Sydney or Milos Point. You always made time.
So sorry I missed saying my final farewell.

Rest well my friend!
Deepest condolences to your family!
Forever in our hearts and minds!

God bless
Lots of love
Lizann

Dearest Judy

All those years ago — sitting by the water at Sugarloaf, not saying much but talking a lot, not catching anything but fishing nonetheless — who knew it'd come to this? We grew apart in the years since we'd play “squash” and hang out at Westfield but I'll never forget your easy smile, full throat laugh, your kindness and thoughtfulness. We always had the best time together and you always allowed me to be myself. I'm so proud to call you my friend. Be free now, rest and soar in peace. I'll see you on the other side — for now I'll just sit with the memory of dropping you home and watching you go into your house all those years ago. With love and regrets, May xx

“ Dear Judy our little sis

So much want to say, all from my memories of you. During our freezing Lantau trip you had lent me your scarf and keep me warm, Thank You. And at the same trip you have proved that you are a twin of your devil brother Kent with the same taste on jokes.

When we were learning snowboard back at the skiing trip, you were the most serious on learning even for fun. While we all learnt from the hard way by clashing everywhere, you listened to the instructor and make you so outstanding ..... from looking at the gondola since no one ski like a robot except you.

This I have yet tell anyone. I had a dream on the night after you left us. In the dream we were looking for food and good stuffs for you to cheer you up from the hard battle you have been through . You was sitting on a chair like a princess waiting for us. Kent was looking for some premium chocolate milkshake for you (do you really like chocolate milkshake??) and others were busy running around the mall, I think that was Chatswood Chase. Thank You for letting us know you have received our loves.

The photo we took at last December, never thought would be the last one, will be cherished.

Get the BBQ and the sport channel ready, see you later at the other side.

“ Dear Judy,

I still remember the times we walk up to the station together after high school. I always think of you as a very strong and direct kind of person. You will always say what you strongly believe in, and I admire you for that.

It's a shame we couldn't find each other more after uni, but still glad that I get to see you once more in 2016.

Rest in peace.

Love Lauren.

“ Dear Judy,

You are forever a friend we're proud to have
Your sonorous laughter will remain in our ears
Your hearty smiles will stay in our heart
While we cannot understand why certain things should be but God in heaven beholds what we cannot see
And praying that our Lord above
Will in time bring you peace and healing!

“ Judy. Words can't express how deeply saddened I am.

I will never forget all the joyful memories that we shared when our families visited Melbourne and the Snowy Mountains together back when we were younger. You were always jovial, welcoming and acted like an older sister to me. In my eyes, you were always very strong and independent, nothing could faze you.

You will forever live on in our hearts.

Rest In Peace.

“ Dear Judes,

I will miss your quick wit, fighting spirit and “tell it like it is” attitude. Never one to sugar coat things, you were always the straight shooter in our group. Your ability to spark joy with the following 4 words: “BBQ at my place” will be sorely missed. We have many happy memories of long nights by the fire, kilos of chicken wings, chatting and laughing. Never one to let a setback hold you back, you were always resilient and strong. Even after you got sick, you were a fighter until the very end.

Thank you for your friendship and all the wonderful memories. It has been a privilege to be able to call you my friend. Whilst your time here with us has come to an end, you will forever be in our hearts.

“ Judy. I've known you since I was young but we never saw each other often despite our families being good friends. I do hear good things about you all the time from my mum and I would often get delicious sweets from you that you have made. I've often looked up to you because you have always been the smart and talented one. Will miss you a lot Judy.

Rest In Peace

“ Judy when we were kids growing up you use to tag along and wanting to be part of our sporting activities. Whether it was cycling, skate boarding, surfing or even fishing off the piers in Ballina you were always there.

I recall like it was only yesterday, on every state of origin match you and I would sit on the couch and scream at the TV sharing the mutual bond of hatred towards the Maroons.

I miss you my beloved Sister! You are also my best friend. I will always have great fond memories of you with me in my heart for eternity.

“ So very sad to hear the news today. Judy, I had the pleasure of meeting you so many years ago on a professional basis, but you became more than my Solicitor.. your care, advice, softness, laugh and humour were always there when we met! I mean who greets their Solicitor with a fond kiss on the cheek & a hug with a genuine joy to see them... I did whenever I saw you!
You are a gem Judy, and I'll miss you!

“ Judy,

We always knew you as Kent's little sister but we only directly interacted 2 years back when we came to you for legal advice. As a professional, you were helpful and generous with your time and efforts. As a friend, you were kind and caring. Thank you for being a good friend to Joy and I. By the way, Adam and Haris loved the place you took us to last time and they will forever refer to it is as Auntie Judy's pizza place.

“ You will always be remembered, Judy. So Young , full of energy and your love of mangoes when I first met you in Byron Bay. You will go to swim at your next door neighbour's then come back for mangoes. Then swim a little more and back for more mangoes... you will always be our little sweet Judy.

May you rest in peace and find your paradise with all your favourite things.

“ Hey Judes,

Thank you for your witty remarks which always made us laugh (“Ange! You were supposed to bring the fruit salad, not groceries!!”). Thank you for your life lessons (making Joyce take a cold shower so you could zip her into her bridesmaid's dress). Thank you for helping feed the worm with your cooking/bbq/baking and team eating. Thank you for letting Kent demonstrate his competitive instincts with the first post.

But most of all, thank you for your friendship and all the laughs we've had. Words can't express how much you will missed.

“ As a dear friend of your sister Kim, Judy you are like a sister to me.

I remembered you and uncle and aunty came to my wedding and you caught the bridal flower. You said you caught it for your sister. You are such a sweet sister.

Remember I came to your office and consulted you about some legal matters, a charming girl yet so professional.

I miss you.

Lots of love
