“ Our Cheung's family has been close friend with Uncle Ng and Auntie Ng for more than 3 decades. Before they moved to Australia, two families had farewell dinner in a Korean Restaurant named 滿拿(if we remember correctly) in Tsim Sha Tsui. After bidding goodbye to Ng's family, we left for home and were about to get on bus no.7. Surprisingly Uncle Ng turned back and reminded us to study hard and be good. Though brief, it has been in our memory all along because of Uncle Ng's care and kindness which we will never forget.

Grace, Dennis, Philip

我們一家認識吳uncle及吳auntie超過30年。在他們移民前，我們在一間位於尖沙咀叫滿拿(如沒有記錯)的韓國燒烤餐廳吃晚飯。之後，互相道別，各自回家。當準備跳上7號巴士之際，突然吳uncle追上來並叮囑我們勤力讀書。雖然說話很短，到現在仍印象深刻，因為吳uncle的關懷及仁慈，我們三姊弟不會忘記。

“ 日熙 - 我的妹夫，自從在九十年代先後各自移民海外，雖然各居地球一方，但是我們都有經常聯絡，尤其是近年，在越洋通話中，我們無所不談。可是數日前，正當我在旅途中，突然傳來他的噩耗，實在令我覺得愕然及傷痛。

記得在我們的談話中，都會提及他的教育生涯，他表現得既高興、又安慰，因為不論在香港或澳洲各地，都有在他教育下的一羣好學生及社會精英，散布世界各地，可說是桃李滿天下，令我欽佩萬分。

近年來，自從志真的健康出現了嚴重問題，日熙無怨無悔地，每天花上約十小時以上在療養中心陪伴及照顧她，直至晚上十時她上床就寢後，他才靜悄悄地，在還沒有進食晚飯的情況下自己駕車回家，可見他是一個非常盡責的好丈夫，對志真照顧得無微不至，相信現在他在天之靈，仍會繼續關心、祝福和眷顧她！

日熙，我們永遠懷念你！

“ I visited my oldest brother, Yat Hei, in June this year. During the week-long visit, we did many things together: visited and spent time with his wife, prayed together, attended mass together, did grocery shopping, ate together... both of us enjoyed the lovely siblings reunion.

In some of our casual conversations, Yat Hei would share with me his recent life events. He especially enjoyed reminiscing stories from his youthful days - some days were bitter, but most of them sweet. As I listened to his stories, memories of my own childhood stirred up in my mind as well. Through these conversations, we both relived our past, and looked forward to a brighter future.

I will always cherish and miss our conversations, our laughs, our tears from this most recent visit with my dearest brother.

Praise be to God for His Mercy and Kindness, for He has given my oldest brother great blessings and has always walked with him along his earthly journey. I pray that Yat Hei is now resting peacefully in God's arms, and enjoying the Heavenly Bliss through the Salvation of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

“ I will always remember Uncle Yat Hei as a kind and gentle man, always having the warmest smile on his face. I remember he once told me a story about how he did a DIY paint job on his VW buggy. It was supposed to be gold but for some reason the color changed to pink over time. Another story I remember was that he filmed the stone wall that he built with his own hands in front of his house and it has a built-in mail box. He was commenting on the video how nicely the wall and the mailbox looked. Then he said, “oh gee, I might have been praising myself a bit there!” And then he chuckled. I just love his joyful spirit, and it was contagious. My regret is that we spent too little time together. I pray that Uncle Yat Hei is in the Lord’s loving embrace now. We miss him dearly, because we love him dearly. May the Lord comforts who love and miss him so; May all of Uncle Yat Hei’s loved ones find solace and peace during this difficult time.
