“ Many of my memories with my grandfather occurred when I was very little, but even today, I can still remember the adventures and even some of the conversations he would use to have with me. It makes me wish that I got to see him more often. I love you Yeh Yeh, and may peace be with you.

“ Uncle we are fortunate to have known you and aunty over the years, and to share excellent home cooked meals and banter together with mum and dad.
We honour the sacrifice you and aunty have made by leaving Penang to settle in a new country.
By faith we shall all meet again one day.

I have known Uncle Loh as a nice, simple and uncomplicated man who loved family. I see some of his personality traits passed down. Glad Uncle Loh is in God's kingdom now free from discomfort. He is a nice person to meet again some day in God's kingdom.
