“ I'm so sorry to hear the sad news; my condolences to your family. I am grateful that I got to see my Yee Por (姨婆) when I visited in Sydney in 2019. I was so appreciative of the effort she made to meet me for dinner, bringing her trademark brightness that I remember so well from even when I was a kid, when she'd come to Toronto for big occasions and little visits. It was an honour to sit with her and be reminded, too, of my grandmother (婆婆) Wong Man Chong, who I miss so much. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Sending love and prayers to you Patricia. Remembering Amanda when she came to BSF a few years ago. When you brought her early, she would be happy to sit and talk to whoever passed by or sat with her. Always smiling and enjoying the company of fellow BSFers. You will miss her but rejoice in the thought of a great reunion one day!
Hugs and prayers. Rhondda ❤️

I have very fond memories of your mum, Patricia. For a while, whenever I met her at BSF Eastwood (in those days of our face-to-face classes) I would greet her 'Hi Ah Poh Poh' meaning 'Hi grandma' until she corrected me to greet her as 'Hi Big Sister' instead. She had meant to say to me that I am not that young myself to call her grandma. What a beautiful soul, what beautiful humour. She was truly an amazing big sister in Christ. To God be the glory. Lots of love, Lee

I remember Amanda's smiling face too when she would arrive early as I was setting up chairs in the church. Her lovely smile said a lot. Praying precious memories of time with your mum will comfort you at this sad time. We don't grieve like those who have no hope. May the God of all comfort be your strength! Love Liz

What a living sister in Christ Amanda. You have rested from the toil of the earth and reunited with our Father in heaven. Your life is a testament of God's faithfulness. Lord, we praise you for sending her to BSF Eastwood Class where we have learned insights about you through her. God's name to be gloried.

“ Dear Patricia and Wai Yat, sorry to hear the sad news and condolence to the family!

I miss Ah Yee, her endearing laugh, her delicious home made Malaysian curry chicken, the walk in the park and all the fond memories we spent in Sydney and Toronto over the years! May and I wanted to visit for a long time but now we can only regret not taking the trip earlier.....

Ah Yee was a loving and caring soul, her soft and kind voice left a deep impression with whoever had the pleasure to spend some time with her.

Rest in peace Ah Yee, we all will miss you....a lot! 😊😊

May and Dennis
