“ Andrew, you were the first person to meet me and my mum at the airport when I first landed in Sydney to study 48 years ago. You and Sally took the onerous task and responsibility of being my guardian even though I have never met you before. Over the years, you have always been kind, helpful, thoughtful towards me, Michael and my children. You will always be in my thoughts and treasured memories of the years we have known each other.

With love, Agnes & Michael

Andrew, you are a man we respect greatly.
You have always been dependable, dedicated, and totally committed in what you do and always contribute by action rather than words.
You have been my role model for me in my life.
We will miss you greatly.

“ Tomorrow we bid our beautiful, kind and selfless dad goodbye and my heart hurts with the thought. Thank you for showing us how to be the best versions of ourselves through your actions and love for your family. You put everyone's needs you loved before your own and I am forever grateful. Love you and will miss you forever.

“ For about 38 years we have had the enormous privilege of knowing Andrew Ho, his wonderful wife Sally and children. This extended from the time our children were playing together, to them maturing into model adults.

We will miss Andrew's charm, elegance and his calming nature. He was a thoroughly committed neighbour who, with his wife, Sally, helped his neighbours whenever asked.

In the face of his recent adversity, his dignity diffused from his close family to his neighbours and friends.

Andrew was an astute person who had an enlivened sense of humour that we enjoyed during our social meetings.

Andrew will be greatly missed and we extend our heartfelt condolences to Sally, Christopher, Rebecca, Andrew and Sally's familial relatives and their respective families.

May you rest in peace.

“ We write this with great sadness over the unimaginable loss of our close friend and horticultural consultant. Andrew was loving and real. One of his beliefs in life was the importance of being authentic with people: saying what needs to be said because it's good for the relationship and for the soul. Also, He never judged or forced his opinions on anyone, but offered valuable help in the right time.

We will always remember your sense of humor, the laughter and the jokes in our LYK gathering. We do cherish the good-last chat with you at your house in Sept.

Our dear friend, you will always be missed.

“ Andrew, our dear brother-in-law, and uncle of Alicia and Kendrea, we will miss you deeply.

We cherish the fond memories of Andrew. We remember him as a loving uncle who helped his nieces with maths tutoring, a fun-loving and humourous brother-in-law who generously shared his knowledge and experience from gardening, handyman tips to finance. His advice was always based on facts and research, a learned gentleman and educated professional.

We will treasure the wonderful memories of the holidays taken with Andrew and Sally in Edinburgh, Bath, Hawaii and other trips within Australia.

Our dear brother-in-law, a trusted friend, may you Rest In Peace.

*With love,
Deborah, Joe, Alicia & Kendrea*

“ Uncle Andrew, it is really sad to know that you have passed away. I still remember while I was growing up all the fun meals with my family, all my aunties and uncles and cousins at your and Auntie Sally's house. I remember you as a person who was always smiling, ready with a joke and constantly laughing. I can still recall your hearty laugh and booming loud voice. You will be missed dearly and our memories of you will remain with us forever. May you rest in peace.

With love, Marco, Olivia, Matthew and Naomi.

“ My memory of my brother was limited to the short time that we shared in Singapore before he went downunder for his tertiary education when I was about 7 years old. Since then, we kept in touch w letters, photos, tape recordings n the occasional expensive phone calls. The advent of IT subsequently made communication much cheaper n easier..

We had our final FaceTime session w Andrew, all 5 other siblings, when we had our first n only (thus far) bonding session in Batam on 22 October. Andrew was still very chatty then n insisted on talking to each n every one of us during our hour-long session. His spirits were high although we knew that his time was limited. It was then the silent wish of the siblings that he could see his 77th birthday. But alas, he missed it by a mere 3 days!

I recall the times that we shared during the numerous visits we were briefly together either in Sydney or in Singapore over the last few decades. I remembered the stay in Rebecca's room, w my Wife, when I last visited Sydney in 2002 n the long drives he took us on sight-seeing trips to the various locations.

Alas, all the above are now memories that r forever etched in our lives. Till we meet again, somehow, somewhat or somewhere, I bid you a fond farewell. May your soul Rest In Peace n may you find happiness beyond this life n lovely family that you have left behind.

Cheers,
Kum Fatt

“ Andrew, my brother, my pioneer.my leader.

We are the two oldest in a family with four boys and two girls. You came to Sydney in 1960 after High School in Singapore. I came to Sydney in 1961. You took up Electrical Engineering and I Civil. After graduating you started work in Sydney and never went back to Singapore to work. I followed your footsteps. Thank you for leading the way and all the encouragements.

I will never be a handyman like you and neither will I ever beat you in Rumikub but I will always treasure our time together.

We will miss you

“ I first recall hearing about Mr Ho when my parents returned from a trip where they first met. My parents were so happy to have met such a lovely, down-to-earth, fun and like-minded couple along with Mrs Ho. From there, their friendship grew and blossomed. They travelled together a number of times afterwards; and I remember you all enjoyed a trip to the Canadian Rockies, which was one of my parents most memorable trips.

Personally, my fondest memories were seeing you play rummy cup with my parents when I returned home. To be met with a kind smile, and to have the opportunity to get to know you and Mrs Ho was such a pleasure. Thank you for bringing my parents such joy through your friendship.

You will always be remembered as a kind and caring soul Mr Ho, and will live on in our memories.

With love,
Becky & Justin

“ Uncle Andrew, thank you for the lovely memories, every time we met you always had a big friendly smile to greet us and always asked about us. We always enjoyed visiting you and Aunty Sally, where we played with your dogs and ate aeroplane jelly! You had a great impact on the Mock family which we always cherish and remember.

With love, Andrew and Stephanie Mock

“ Sally & Andrew, you were my first friends when we moved to Sydney, in 1990. Andrew was friendly, always with a smile even a chuckle. He was a very wise intelligent man. His advise was just like conversation offered in a soft & calm manner about all sorts of things. You were taken too soon, we will miss you. Our deepest sympathy to you Sally, Rebecca, Chris & families. Our love Kay & Ted xx Lauren, Ryan & families.

“ I've always known you as Mr Ho and always alongside Mrs Ho. You were such a cheerful and kind man, and I know that is why my parents enjoyed your friendship so much. I would always hear about the dancing nights, non-stop cruises or late night Rummikub sessions. You will be sorely missed, but always remembered. My deepest condolences Mrs Ho and family.

“ Steve and I retain fond memories of Andrew during family occasions at Chris and Mel's home. Andrew was always polite and courteous to us.
Whenever I enquire about his bonsai plants and his garden he would light up and start sharing, giving tips and wanting to give some of his plants away.
Steve also remembered Andrew talking animatedly about engineering to him.
We extend our deepest condolences to the Ho family at this time of their grieving

“ We knew Andrew & Sally through my brother and then found that his brother, Kum Fatt, was an ex-colleague of mine at MRTC, Singapore. We met from time to time through the years and at functions organised by my brother. We had also just met a few months ago at Carlingford Court and were not aware that he was sick. He looked pretty good at that time. As such, it really came as a shock to us to learn that he had just left us. Our deepest condolences to Sally & the family. May his soul Rest In Peace.

“ Brother Andrew - my childhood hero!
He was my protector when the rest of the siblings were teasing and bullying me
The big brother image remained in my mind

We had a good time together until you left for further studies in Sydney however you continue to be there for me when need arises.

Thank you dear brother!

You were Special and there was so much pain to let you go. We were treasure the FaceTime call and many happy memories of our childhood.

May the Angels take care of you and give you our love till we meet again

You will be sadly missed - my childhood hero!
