“ Dear Pete and So family, we feel incredibly fortunate to have met Annie and are devastated for your loss. From the very first time we met Annie (at a restaurant in Parramatta) we knew Pete had struck gold- what an amazing woman. Hoping you can find some peace in remembering and sharing the good times and happy memories. Much love, Bondy and Natalie Chan.

“ Annie was not only a good work colleague but also a friend who liked assisting everyone with full commitment and had the presence to lighten any situation with her generosity, kindness and laughter. Annie also had a passion for First Nation artworks and in combination with her ancestry may the Spirits of both the Chinese and First Nation intertwine and lead Annie in her journey into her own dreamtime. It was extremely sad news of Annie's passing and my sincere condolences to her family and friends. Annie, may you rest in peace.

“Annie was truly a wonderful person and I’ll miss her a lot. We’ve know each other since 2017 when I started working for Transport. I was shy at the time and didn’t talk much so naturally didn’t have a lot of friends. But Annie always came to talk to me, she was always so warm and friendly so I opened myself up quickly. At the same time I admire her as she stood up and had the courage to say the right thing. Annie loved children and we often talked about the possibility of having kids. I was thinking how excited she’d be when I tell her that I’m pregnant. But she passed before we had a chance to catch up and for that I’m truly sorry. Rest In Peace Annie. You will be missed.

“ Annie was one of my closest and dearest friend for over 30 years and played a significant role in my life, where she had a profound influence on me over the years.

She was the most dependable, compassionate and extraordinary friend. I will forever be grateful and cherish all the memories we shared and the times we spent together.

“ You will be missed Annie. You were a great co-worker, who's always willing to help out, very easy to work with. You always have a warm smile and good to talk to. No more pain for you and I'll be praying that may your soul rest in peace. My deepest sympathies to your family and the loved ones you have left behind. May God give them strength in this most difficult time.
