“ Dear Uncle Arthur,

I still remember the day in Year 10 History class when we were watching a documentary about immigration to Australia when you suddenly appeared on the TV screen! It dawned on me then how many people you have helped over the years and what an important figure you are in our community. You will be missed by many, but it's your family that will miss you the most.

With Love, Edmond, Nhi and Zach

“ I (Ada) still remember the first Coca-Cola you bought us, then the first Polaroid, the first recorder. ..You were the great uncle that would bring us new & exciting things when the Mid Autumn Festival came. Most importantly you're the guidance to our life. Your deep knowledge of Chinese and great story telling made you one of the great public speaker we ever met. Thank for being such a great inspiration. We'll forever miss you dearly.

“ I introduced Mr Chang to my parents a few years ago. They were impressed by his proficiency in Chinese even though he came to Australia at the age of 14. They were also admired by his leadership in the Chinese Community.

I remembered Mr Chang by his smile when he walked my best friend Louise down the aisle on her wedding day. He was proud and happy.

My family and I miss Mr Chang.
