“ My youngest uncle, the closest uncle I have. In Chinese there is a phrase saying "niece is alike with uncle", yes I admit that, we had so many things that are alike. But yes, I still miss you.

“ Nobody can understand how hard a separation is... It remains only the eternal memory in our hearts of our dear friend. A beautiful soul, full of love and faith, ascended to heaven, away from us, but closer to God, leaving loneliness and sadness.

“ we know Chin Chiu way back when we were young high schoolers. He invited me to the high school fellowship, and from there I knew about Jesus and was able to become a Christian. I will never forget that. Chin Chiu has a vibrant personality. He was active, friendly, and was ready to share other's joy and sorrow. My wife remembered the time when she first went to the high school fellowship, there was a small group of young people meeting every Sunday, before Sunday school hour, to pray together, Chin Chiu was one of them. We both enjoyed his personality and as a brother in Christ.

Although we lived in different continents and have lost contact, we always remember him. It is so good to see his smiling face in all these pictures, and learned that he has lived a very challenging life yet fulfilling life in his travels and life in Australia. Also happy for him and his wife that they shared the same interest and vision.

Our warmest and heartfelt love to Belinda, his beloved wife, our sadness that we have missed a brother who's so full of life and enjoying life to its fullest. Our comforting hope is that we can see him in Heaven when we go there eventually.

Grief is not easy to get rid of especially when someone is so dear to you and has spent so many years together. Our prayers are with Belinda.

“ Though we got disconnected for over half a century, Chin-chiu's name is always connected to a lively young man wearing a bright smile on his face. Now he's traveled to a better place with no pain nor suffering.

Looking forward to meeting him up there some time to chat about the good old days in Gallim.

“ 親愛的Caleb弟兄，他：
敦厚樸實，謙和勤奮，
勇於承擔，腳踏實地，
樂於分享，句句真誠，
不用心計，與世無爭，
愛人愛神，忠心事主，
溫暖笑容，永遠懷念。

“ 今天的追思會過後，縱有離愁別緒，卻為Caleb感恩和安慰。一生縱遊四海，為理想而活，今生無悔。生活或順或逆，有Belinda同行，在最艱難的日子，更不離不棄。無論是親人，同學，同事和教會朋友，我們心中的Caleb都是求公義，好憐憫，存兼卑的心，與主同行。在世雖不再相見，你的笑臉，我們會永遠懷念。

“ We have not known Caleb for a long time but the last few years, when he was suffering from the illnesses with Belinda.

Reading the Tribute wall and hearing from fellowships, I see a completely different Caleb , who is happy, healthy, mobile, kind, frank and down to earth, and serving God is his utmost.

Caleb is very true to tell us that listening and speaking English in Australian way is a hurdle and difficulty we have to face and accept, when we migrated back to Sydney a few years ago.

Now that you are in peace with God and we shall meet again in Heaven.

May our Lord bless and comfort Belinda, and his relatives during this time of grief. Please accept our sincere condolences.

In Christ,

“ 最初我對招展照留有印象是在多年前中大校友會的AGM。他與愛妻 Belinda 給校友講述他倆走經澳洲沙漠的旅遊經歷，我對招展照的大無畏精神，很是仰慕。
及後讀到他年青時寫的書，記述他大學畢業後遨遊以色列及聖地的故事，我深被吸引，神遊他所及的地方。
Caleb，你現抵達天鄉，能與天父同在。
懷念你

“ I came to know Caleb and Belinda through my church friends, Parker and Brenda. I firstly met Caleb on 2-Jan-2015. I visited Caleb every Tuesday and cooked lunch for him. He liked my congee cooking with Salmon fillet. He enjoyed listening to the daily devotion (爾道自建) with me on my Smart phone. One day, after I finished cutting his fingernail. He said would you mind to cut my toenail. I said I did not mind. He was so touched, he said it was not a nice thing to cut someone's toenail. I said we were brother-in-Christ, you trusted and allowed me cutting your fingernail.

Caleb, you are now rest in peace with our Lord. One day we shall meet again. You are always in my heart.

“ I knew Caleb in Philippi Fellowship at CBC while I was serving as convenor there. His first impression to me was a very serious person, he was and he wasn't. I found him a real serious brother while serving Lord through church. He spent wisely for the church activities, he gently and directly advised me when my saying/behaviour might cause conflict between fellowship and church, he quietly helped me to build up some relationship between the brothers which I couldn't cover. While he and Belinda travelled to Macau in 2007, they spent time to visit each cultural landmark and found 5 days for Macau tour was not enough while 2 days was good enough for most people.

He was also a humorous brother. He could always express his opinion in a humorous way and made me laugh in heart. While some people think I'm good at gardening, Caleb and Belinda are my first teachers for gardening. They came to our first house to teach us what is weed, how to plant and how to fertilise. We had some good time together to dream for a beautiful garden at our house and their house. We miss you Caleb but we will meet again at the most beautiful garden with Lord in the future. RIP.

“ We knew Caleb since we started our worship at CABC, sydney. Caleb is a very dear brother to I and my husband. He is also very generous and have humors and always sincere. He is also very 'green" probably because of his work and his love for the environment.

He's also a very dedicated brother in Christ. We shall remember him with his cheerfulness and his kindness to others.

RIP, brother!

“ We knew Caleb since the early days when he joined our church cell group in Hebron

Chinese Alliance Church. He became our friend since then and he is our dear brother in Christ. He was cheerful, warm and always made effort to meet us. We had many good fellowship time with him. Caleb was a man of many talents and also quite adventurous in exploring new places. He traveled extensively both within and outside Australia. We were amazed of the places he had been. With his gifted writing skill he recorded down many interesting experiences during his trip and the people he met. Besides his gifts of writing and insightful observation, he is also a man with sharp technical mind. I believe Australia is slightly cleaner because of his many years of conscientious work in waste treatment. As a follower of Christ, Caleb has kept his faith and done his utmost. We do miss him but we also know Caleb is with the LORD. When our LORD Jesus returns, he will be resurrected with an imperishable body.

“ Caleb brought much joy to me when we traveled on our AIM short term mission trip to visit the indigenous people of Queensland. We had a great time together as a team with lots of previous memories. I learned much from him and he was a good and faithful Christian brother. I am glad that he is home with the Lord and enjoying the great blessing this brings. Past Steve Turner
