“ Dr Chan was an elder sister of my eldest sister's old friend. I only met her in Canberra. She was intelligent, sharp, but kind and modest. She wanted me to call her 'nineth sister', not Dr Chan. I instantly felt close to her. I fell badly hiking in NZ injuring one of my knees in 2007 but stubbornly believed self healing. Nineth Sis called me from her Sydney home strongly and straight talking that I need to see an orthopaedist for surgical operation and my soft approach of physiotherapy was useless. I indeed benefited from her professional yet passionate advice thus saved my knee. I couldn't be more grateful.

Thank you Nineth Sis. I will miss you. May you rest in heaven peacefully and don't stop advising those in need in heaven. Yours truly, May Lok.

陳醫生，我們很尊敬的前輩，願妳安息主的懷裡，不再有哭泣和眼淚，不再有病患和疼痛！
她做事有方法，有條有理，愛整潔，連她家中的地布，也很雪白如新！
她很疼愛家人，珍重友情，常關懷有需要的！事事親力親為，不想打擾別人！也給自己的女兒很大的自由度，歡容大量，體貼入微，照顧周到！
愛神，愛人，愛教會！
她給我很深刻的印象，溫暖的感覺，常留在我心中。我永遠懷念你，
Jean

Dear Aunt No. 9:

You are always very generous to us whenever we went to Australia to visit our parents. You treated us to nice lunches and dinners. One time, you gave us 2 beautiful woollen scarves (Vivian helped you pick them) and they are still very much treasured until these days. You are a very kind person, full of wisdom and justice. We respected and love you very much.

May your soul be forever embraced by our merciful Lord and enjoy eternal peace for your unflinching love for our Lord during your whole life.
