“ The family of Chin Rossi (née Foo) would like to thank you all for your kindness, support, flowers, donations and heart felt words. A special thank you to everyone who attended and streamed the service from across the world or took the time to watch the replay. My mum was a remarkable woman and we are so thankful she was loved and admired by so many. Thank you again for your kind expressions of sympathy and we truly appreciate you all. Love The Rossi Family xoxo

“ Aunty,

Thank you for your precious gifts to me:

1. Leana. She is one of my truest and best friends. We have been through so many of life's adventures together and I can only wish for the same friendships for my own daughter.

2. For showing me how to be a strong and fierce mother. Words just wouldn't do justice to the memories and feelings that I have when I think of the times you have shown me how to be brave, strong and courageous and to put your family first with no exception.

Love,

Simone

“ Grandma told us to be united as a family other outsider with bad intention will destroy us. Pa is more communities centric. 3 yrs with grandma drilling on family centric. Jia chin n me r very family centric. Ta koh told me later in Imbi KI that JiaChin joined d women liberation grouping in oz but during lunch n dinner time she would rush home to cook 4 ko! Ko said our family values were passed dwn by grandma to all d girls n that what made us strong, united n independent. I used jia chin idea of leadership n control in my work life n grandma slogan of being d grandchildren n children of Foo hong sang n Foo chow young WE r d leader n people respect us for what we r. Our dad n mom generosity n hardwork made us what we r today. In KB chin to make sure that we picked up English esp me, she order d magazn beno n made sure all of us read it. Ko will passed to us alot of history n geography lesson. She applied 4 scholarship frm Lee rubber to go to Aus. Pa n her went 4 d interview n she did all d answering. Pa later said aiyo this daughter of mine made d bd of directors speechless.she never accept that women r second to men tho in our fam we always served d boys!

“ My only eldest sis n I r very diff during childhood. Jiachin very brave n nothing scare her. I a penaku so i always stick to her for protection. We stay wid grandma in Tumpat n pa n ma in KB. Only 1 person at a time cango to kb to c ma n pa n i takut to go alone so non of us made it. I really irritate her. Do u know that our big sis is d community hero of tumpat. She had wide range of friends. Prople age of 30 n 20 came to her for advice like our pa n she was then hardly 13yrs of age. Her habits are eat n sleep. She hate injustice so when grandma punished her unjustly she will pack her school bag n a bowl n walk to our other grandma near d tumpat old family house. When i asked her why bowl? She said to ensure she could have makan. Ko's god father d yap family who at tumpat ah poh houas whose son beng liet same age wid jiachin told her that he got bully at school. Jiachin went to his boy school n told d bully off. Beng Liet is double jiachin size n height. I learn alot on leadership n care for our family n siblings. She had always take care of me in kind n in comfort n i miss her so much. She had said goodbye to me a few weeks back & i cried on d phone. She said 'Tan i hv a good n happy life. My 2 children now hv their own family n doing well. She loves her 3 grandkids n d kids gave her alot of happiness n extended her life. In tumpat she is our hero n when any fam did unjust to us she will direct all of us to through sand into d house. At d end both of us got d stick frm mom. Last 3 yrs we talk alot on fon n she talk alot about d kids n show so much happiness. She told me do not feel sad about her', she is happy n fulfilled but i do miss her dearly.

“ Tribute from Malaysian family.

Our sister, sister-in-law, duar ah boh, duar boh poh, Many of us have different memories of you, you will be remembered as a strong, humorous and sweet lady. From many domestic to international travels, you were always there to put a smile on our face and unite our family together. Indeed a big sister & duar ah boh to all of us, you took care of us and reminded us to always respect each other. You were a courageous and inspirational lady to all of us. Words cannot express the sorrow all of us are feeling. Even though you were miles away from us, you never ever made us feel that you were, from calling us every Chinese New Year and Christmas wishing us good health and happiness and giving your nephews and nieces ang paos every year without fail. Your teachings and care have shown in how Mark and Leana have turned out, a true testament. We wish we could be there for your final send off but unfortunately we were not able to, till we all meet again, we know you will be looking down on us as our guardian angel.

Farewell and rest in peace our dearest sister, sister-in-law, duar ah boh and duar boh poh.

“ Duah Ah Boh, my dearest aunt.

The light of our family - full of fun, laughter and wisdom.

Though we lived thousands of miles apart and our paths seldom crossed, as your first niece we had a special bond that always brought us together at every opportunity. Growing up in KL I'll always remember the sheer excitement upon us whenever you, Uncle John, Marco and Leana were visiting from Sydney. We'd make plans for outings, dinners and holidays with the extended family - what fun we used to have. Oh and your suitcases would be filled with gifts and Aussie delights for us, especially the boxes of fruits so lovingly chosen and packed.

You'd always call the house phone to chat to us, and whenever I was back home in KL for holidays, when the house phone rung (and it seldom did as mobile phones became popular) I knew instantly it would be Duah Ah Boh calling from Sydney and we'd pass the phone to each family member so you could catch up with our news. That's what's so special about you, not only were you so caring and fun, you were a good listener and always lifted spirits with the best advice.

And I was privileged to be able to visit you in Sydney, it was a flying visit and you'd make time to meet up with me even though you weren't feeling too well. I'll never forget the feeling when I hugged you goodbye after our lunch date, I held you so tightly and kept looking back as I walked away...I knew it may well be the last time we would see each other.

Duah Ah Boh, I love you with all my heart and you'll forever be in my thoughts. Until we meet again, sleep peacefully.

Your loving niece, Alisan (San) xx

“Mum I will miss you so much! Thank you for always putting us first and for the sacrifices you made to get us here. We were truly blessed to have you as a mother. You were caring, generous, intelligent and strong, such a beautiful person. You really did make the world a better place and not having you here has been really tough. My only comfort is that you are now at peace and always said you have seen everything you wanted and lived a good life. Below is a poem that you kept that I wrote to you on your 75th birthday which I found called “My Mummy - Just for You”

*I would choose you over all mothers,
Whether it be night or day.
I'd shower you with many gifts,
If you would let them stay.
For the job of being a mother,
Is often a thankless task.
You give so much to others,
But for yourself you do not ask.
You will often go without,
So the family can have the best.
You are up first thing in the morning,
And are last to take a rest.
You ate often taken for granted,
Yet you do it all for love.
And I thank my lucky stars for you,
For fighting so long until it's time to go up above.*

I know it was your time and you were ready to go but know you will always live on in us and I will always love you mummy. I'm so happy we got to celebrate Christmas together and this was our last photo together then.

Love you always, your daughter Leana

“ Some truths in life are hard to accept when I woke up reading a message from Mong Loo that Mong Chin has passed away. I couldn't believe it for a moment. Holding on to my tear. Mong Chin has always been a fun person to talk to and a very caring person. When I was young, I remembered she would always remind Ah Po to eat more as she was very skinny. Late Ah Kong was so proud of her showing me her university graduation photos. Memories of you will never be forgotten. You will always be in my heart.

“ Thank you Chin for making me feel I am part of the family when I first married your brother. You have been a wonderful sister to me and your brother. We both will be missing you very much.

I had been many years ago when I had the chance to see you making an effort to teach your young one on respecting others especially the elderly, this had touched my heart. Your children will learn and appreciate your effort when they have their own one to take care of in their coming years.

*We will always love you and keep you in our hearts.
You will always be in my heart & in my mind.*

“ Sister Chin,

When news of you entering ICU, I began to pray and hope that like so many previous episodes your courageous fighting spirit would get you through once again, but when brother Moo called to say that you were no longer with us, I was stunned for a long moment then tears began to shed from my eyes. But no amount of tear drops or words can ever express my sadness and sorrow. After a while, memories started to bring me back to our years together living in Sydney, a big & busy city with people with physical features, culture & customs much different from home. But then you were able to adjust and adapt quickly to the new environment. Even though you were younger than me, you just automatically took up the role of 'a big sister' and handled our daily necessities without any word of protest or complaint. You were my adviser and guardian on many matters. In my hours of despair & loss you were a tower of strength that I rely on to lift me out of trouble. Now that you are gone, to those of us who were close and dear to you, it is an irreplaceable loss. You have now fought your last battle with this terrible and horrifying disease for many years with courage and persistence. You have done your very best against a formidable foe to the last breathe. It is time to take a peaceful rest. Time will decide how long in the future we will be together in another dimension and fate will arrange our path. For now, I can only depend on my memories of things that happened to us before. So bye now my wonderful and caring sister.

Love from Ko.

“Chin was a very loving and caring individual to her family members, she was always able to offer advice on numerous subjects when needed. She had a very good sense of humour and her laugh was contagious. I will always remember that laugh. She will always remain in my heart and in my thoughts. A beautiful person inside and out. You will be deeply missed Chin Rest In Peace sweet lady.
