“ Uncle Kin was always smiling and happy. I remember him to be kind, generous and always offering me food. I guess that is the way he showed love and care. By God's grace, he is with Our Heavenly Father now. There he will find true rest and everlasting peace. Uncle Kin, see you in heaven!

“ My dad will be missed. I treasured all the times I had with him, he was always there for me at time of need and he was always willing to support us no matter what. My dad has made me the man that I have become and I am proud and thankful for all the love he has given, expecting nothing in return.
