“ Dear Ai Lien, Ai Quynh and Kien,

Your family has shared great friendship and love with our family since you arrived in Kingsgrove many years ago. We have happy memories of your Mum's kindness, happy smile and gentle pride in each of her children, not to mention the wonderful meals she cooked for each of our birthdays! As we have shared the happy times and celebrated special days, we are all sad now as we remember Thoi and your father Van, and the love they had for their family and friends. “ Rest In Peace Mrs Mac. As a widow, you have brought your three children to the highest morals n they have gained respects from their peers. You were very proud of your children and they are very honored to be your children. They have worked in unisons to care for you all these years. This has reflected by the Chinese culture you have taught them. A very hard act to follow. For that I salute you, Mrs Mac and your family. Respectfully yours, The Lai family.
