“ I remember Dora's as a powerful prayer warrior and woman of God and dear wife to Stephen. She was wonderfully hospitable and supportive of Gods ministry. When Stephen went out to preach she would pray from home. She loved the saints of God and had compassion on the vulnerable. I will always treasure her support of me during covid, till I see her again in Heaven. Thankful to Jesus for Dora's life and its impact on me.

All it takes is one prayer to change everything.

“ As the Lord said Go in peace and I will give you rest! May our cousin Dora rest in peace. We will cherish all the moments that all of us have together with her. We miss you and condolences to Melanie and Olivia + their families on their mum's demise.
