“ You stand a unique position in our family. In tense situations, you are the voice that calms us; in crossroads, you lead us through! You watched us grow, we are heartbroken to see you go! Your legacy lives on, same as you, live forever among the Chanchans!

“ Patricia and I had the privilege of meeting Eric at the Hong Kong International airport a few years ago through Patricias brother Lucas.
We also got to meet Orina and Eric in Toronto for lunch when Lucas was visiting Toronto

*Eric was nice, polite, very soft spoken and provided us with some good advice on retirement . He left us with a good impression of how all people should show respect to one another.
He was a good guy*

*Orina, our condolences.
We hope you and your family find peace through all of this* “ Having grown up with Orina since primary school, I have known Eric since he dated Orina. I've attended their wedding about 42 years ago and witnessed Eric being a passionate and loving husband to Orina all these years. They are an admirable couple with 2 sons, a daughter and grandchildren, together making up a very happy and blessed big family. My husband and I are very sad to know that Eric has already left us. We've lost a very caring , helpful and great family friend. Though we live far apart, we've always kept each other in our hearts. Pray God receive Eric in His loving arms and comfort Orina, their family members and all who love Eric.

With deepest condolences,

“ We passed our teenagers with Eric , and is deeply impressed by his genuine love and responsibility over us , and others around him. Eric is such a super nice man and hero , who secretly did all good deeds for peoples without expecting a reward and credit. He touched everyone' s heart with warmth and caring.

Eric will be deeply remembered , and will be in my mind , and I am very sure he will be received by god in heaven , and enjoys eternal joy and peace.
