“ Dear James

So very sorry to hear of your loss. I recall you sharing photographs with me of a trip you and Sophia made to Ireland and of the joy you spoke of in your relationship. It seems a cruel blow when so many unhappy marriages persist that a happy marriage like yours is struck with the loss of a loved partner.

*With sincere condolences

“Gorgeous adventurous energetic Sophia so hard to believe. Wonderful memories of you in Ireland at my home and all around Clare together with Jimmy and the deep love between you. My absolute favourite memory is while Jimmy, Anne, Mary L & myself were talking with the owner of old O'Dwyer house in Kilshanny and wondering if we dared ask to go into the house I look over her shoulder and see you literally scampering around at the back of the house taking photos and I totally cracked up laughing. Much love to you Jimmy and Jeremy also ❤️💙❤️

“ A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall. And as the days passed swiftly by, it spread its branches straight and tall. One day a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide –The rose bent gently toward its warmth, then passed beyond to the other side. Now, you who deeply feel its loss be comforted – the rose blooms there. Its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God’s own loving care. Deepest sympathy to James and Geoffrey and all Sophia’s family and loved ones. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Tom, Breege, Ketrin and Daniel Walsh. Sligo, Ireland 💔
