“ Henry will always stay in our heart!

Henry was a very demanding yet generous; creative, directive and yet fun to with boss and friend. He didn't waste any of his time and opportunities to bring in valuable changes and improvements to people all around him.

Henry loved to be with people and offered his hospitality at his utmost, and there were never been any dull moment when Henry was around.

Henry had always been on the road and we believe he had embarked another wonderful journey to heaven. So long, farewell, Henry.
