

Ms. Hok Kin Chan 陳士媛女士

August 6, 1941 - October 22, 2024

In Loving Memory of Hok Kin Chan

I invite you to join me in honouring the life of my beloved mother, Hok Kin Chan, who passed away peacefully on 22 October 2024 in Sydney.

Date: Saturday, November 2 2024

Time: 10:45

Location: Macquarie Park Cemetery, Rose Chapel
Cnr Delhi and Plassey Roads North Ryde NSW 2113

A viewing and service celebrating her life will be held before the burial followed by a wake luncheon. (Greenwood Chinese Restaurant, 101 Miller Street, North Sydney NSW 2060).

A livestream facility will be available and instructions on this will be provided ahead of time.

In lieu of flowers, I do kindly requests that you consider making a donation to a charity of your choice or allow our family to decide on a meaningful cause. Your generosity will help continue my mother's legacy of compassion and love.

Please join me as we remember and celebrate the beautiful life of Hok Kin.

With love,

David Suen

“ Our deepest sympathy and thoughts to David, Auntie will deeply be missed. Saying goodbye to someone we love is heartbreaking. Auntie is kind, generous, and she always care about others. She is brave, strong, and never gave up. She filled our lives with happiness and sweet feelings that we will carry in our hearts forever. Remembering the old times when she played mahjong with my grandma and she did dim sum with my mom in Hong Kong. Our family is pleasure to have met you and your family in our life. Today and always, may loving memories bring you peace, comfort, and strength. We will miss her.

“ Though I didn't see auntie much, I remembered my first visit in Eastwood and she took me for hair cut. I came to visit and stayed in George street years later, I was shocked she cooked me a big bowl of noodle with prawns, scallops and many other ingredients for breakfast. I am grateful of all her support and I will miss her.

“ Dear David, I will always remember your mum's kindness, gentle and loving nature. She is the first person who reached out to us when we first migrated to Sydney from HK. I still remember she brought us cups, bowls and plates when we first arrived without us asking. She was always so kind to my parents and us kids. I still remember the weekends we used to spend together doing groceries at Flemington markets and then going yum cha after. She was a wonderful friend to my mum when she was often alone. I have always considered her family and will miss her forever.
Love, Jen L.

“ Dear Kin Man

May we express our deepest sympathies on your mum's passing. Aunty was a very blessed lady having such a wonderful, loving and caring son like you. She was very lucky to have you take her travelling all the around the world, dining at some of the finest of restaurants and, in more recent years, to have you look after her with such dedication and filial piety.

We shall always remember Aunty's warm-heartedness, graciousness, kindness and generosity to us and all those around her.

May she rest in peace.

With heartfelt condolences,

David, Paul, Paulette, Philomena and our extended family
