“ I remember the many impromptu visits to Uncle Bill when we would just talk and talk. Cups of tea and cake would be the norm. I would show UBill our photos and videos of my life and we would reminisce on the past when we first met in Hong Kong in 1969 and stayed in his unit.

He was always bubbly and happy. The last time I visited UBill , I suggested he watch the Bruce Lee mini series on Netflix but somehow in the conversation he started to talk about the Japanese occupation of Hong Kong

I'll miss this interesting and happy soul.
