“ A life well lived is a precious gift,
of hope and strength and grace,
from someone who has made our world
a brighter, better place.
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad
with smiles and sometimes tears,
with friendships formed and good times shared,
and laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy,
of joy and pride and pleasure,
a living, lasting memory
our grateful heart's will treasure.

Born at the end of WW1 and having lived through WW2, Grandma Irene witnessed a century of change and upheaval and showed great strength and resilience bringing up her family in difficult times and ensuring a better life for them. We are fortunate to have met her a few times, even though we lived abroad, and she was always welcoming and extremely happy when we visited. My most enduring memory of her was when I visited the family in China aged 11 before moving to the UK. Grandma, Catherine, Uncle Anthony and I all mounted Uncle Anthony's motorbike and rode to breakfast (yes, four of us on the motorbike!). I remember thinking how courageous she was riding the bike with us, but it was the quickest way to get to the restaurant to ensure we got a table. In typical Chinese hospitality, we always had plenty of delicious food to share. Grandma Irene, thank you for the lovely memories.

Love from Zoey & Joel and the Neuenschwander Family

“ We met Aunty Irene only briefly at our father's funeral back in 2000. We really appreciated her coming all the way from Sydney and were genuinely moved by her warmth and caring nature.

Our thoughts and prayers are with her family, RIP Aunty Irene.

“ Grandma Irene Ailian has lived past a century through God's grace. She was educated and conversant in English , and Mandarin and Cantonese. She has brought up her family well. She was always kind, hospitable and gracious towards us and always enquiring about our well-being. God has called her back to be with Him. May her soul rest in peace and in the arms of Jesus. God bless you Irene
