“ Dear family of Jeremy and Amelia,

Sorry to hear of Jeremy's passing. I met Jeremy as a graduate at pwc, and was his room mate for 2 weeks in Melbourne. Physically he may have suffered from various health issues, but his mind was sharp. I know he loved Jesus, following him to the end. 12 months prior, he had invited me to a Christian group when we were interns, which brought me comfort in what was a big transition from uni to work.

Even though Jeremy's time on earth may have been cut short, he lived to the max - he loved blasting savage garden songs on his speakers.

May you find comfort in knowing that Jeremy is now home with his creator, safe and secure in Christ Jesus.

“ I vividly remember meeting Jeremy during our national tax academy training days. He has the ability to make people feel seen, and exudes this warmth that makes people feel comfortable around him from the start. Jeremy loved a good laugh and had this love for life I was inspired by. I have very fond memories of all the conversations we've had, from tax to mandopop to his admiration for Amelia. Rest in peace Jeremy, you shall always be in our hearts.

“ It’s hard to find the right words to honour someone like Jeremy. He had the rare ability to make you feel seen, heard, and completely at ease.

We went to high school together, and from day one, Jeremy had a way of making everyone around him feel like they belonged. He was someone you could always talk to, no matter what was happening. He’d listen without judgment and somehow make you laugh through it all.

Jeremy had a quiet strength and a heart that made space for everyone. Thoughtful to his core, he always checked in when you needed it most and instinctively knew when to crack a joke that would lift your spirits. His sense of humour was effortless, sometimes unexpected, but always on point.

More than anything, Jeremy was an all-round top bloke. Despite his own challenges, he shone through. Even now, his calm, steady, kind presence stays with everyone who knew him.

He left too soon, but left us better than he found us. That’s the kind of legacy Jeremy gave the world, and for that, we’ll always be grateful.

“ Dear Amelia,

Sending our condolences to you during this difficult time.

We have fond memories of Jeremy. His love for the Lord Jesus, his sharing at bible study and his service as a drummer has been a great encouragement.

*May you continue to look to God and find comfort and peace in Him.
We will continue to pray for you and your family.*

*Regards,
Newton, Amy and family.*

“ Jeremy has been a friend who has been so present with me, even now.

other than learning to be patient with him when looking through legacy magic cards with him (of course), i have always enjoyed my time enjoying God's creation together. Jia and I can still remember him saying he could see the shark while strolling through the Osaka aquarium. And yes he could, but with his ears, smell and touch.

He has lived an incredible life and was someone who loved God, and did not let his physical needs define who he was. We enjoyed sharing our love for Japanese music and anime. I have been blessed by his dry humour and he will be greatly missed for this short while on earth until we are in heaven.

“ Dear Amelia, Uncle Edwin, Aunty Rowena and Ashley,

Sending our utmost condolences to you all and your loved ones during this difficult time.

Jeremy has been a great blessing to all of us in the family cell group and church. We will definitely miss his humour, musical talent and love for the Lord.

May God continue to look after you all with His love and assurance. We will continue to pray for you all.

“ Dear Amelia, Uncle Edwin, Aunty Rowena, Por Por and Ash,

I got to know Jeremy when we were in the same bible study group many years ago and serving together at church in music. I was always impressed by how much he loved the Lord and his willingness to serve and help others despite of the difficulties. This has very much encouraged me, especially in the area of music. I praise the Lord always for what he has done in Jeremy.

Please accept our deepest condolences, we will continue to pra that you are comforted by knowing that he is now with the Lord Jesus where there is no more pain and suffering.

“ Dear Amelia and Family,
It was so special to meet Jeremy, especially as my boy Aiden (7 years old) has an eye development issue which essentially means he has no vision in his right eye at all. As a parent one goes through so much worry about what that means for him and for his future. When we saw Jeremy playing the drums up the front at church, we knew we had to meet him, and it was so good to have someone that Aiden could see how Jeremy overcame challenges and is still able to do so much and serve and contribute with his gift in music. He will always hold a special place in our hearts especially Aiden's.

“ Dear Amelia & Jeremy's family, I got to know him through the bible study group and I was deeply moved and inspired by his wealth of bible knowledge and strong faith. It was such a short time but God used Jeremy to touch as many souls as he could and made a huge impact on us all. Jeremy, you were taken by God who loves you dearly but you are also with us always and we look forward to catching up with you in heaven. Thanks Brother!

“ Dear Amelia and Family,

*I am so deeply sorry for your loss. 🙏
Jeremy was a wonderful person, and it was a privilege to have known and trained him. I'll always remember his dedication, determination, and the energy he brought to every session. It was truly inspiring to see his commitment to improving and pushing himself.*

Sharing these moments through photos and videos is my way of honoring him, celebrating his strength, and remembering the positive spirit he brought into every workout. My heart goes out to you and your family during this incredibly difficult time. Please know that I am here for you, and you are in my thoughts.

*With heartfelt condolences, 🙏💜

“ Dear Amelia, Adrian and Christine,

Chitra and I had the opportunity to meet a very beautiful soul in Jeremy.

Its heartbreaking to know that he has left us but not the memories that he had created. He lived as an example that nothing was impossible. He is an inspiration to the rest of us. He laughed at my silly jokes.

He has forever left a lasting memory in all of us.

He is now in a better place and in the hands of the almighty.

May peace be with you.

“ Dear Amelia, Uncle Edwin, Aunty Erlinda, Popo Betty and Ashley,

We are deeply sorry and saddened by the passing of dear Jeremy. Knowing him from birth and watching him grow and mature to a beautiful young man, then seeing him into marriage has been some of our greatest joy to share with him and your family.

In his young life, he has taught us so much from his amazing character. His love, joy, kindness and generosity to all those who crossed his path. Even though many would have been crippled by the challenges that faced him, he always found a way to be grateful for his life. Seeing him love and faithfully serve our Lord and Saviour and his people was always encouraging.

Even though death parts us, we have such certainty in knowing we will see him again with Jesus.

Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with you all.

In Christ's love James and Erlinda Hsieh; Mark, Margred, Andrew and Lyanna Grace.

“ Jeremy was one of the first friends I made when I joined his church. I will forever his warmth, kindness, and positivity towards both people closest to him, as well as those he'd only just met. He never hesitated to share with me the simple pleasures of life as young boys, whether it was a new fact he'd recently learnt or video games. To live a life filled with joy is to embrace it the way he did, with open arms and a big smile. Rest in peace, Jeremy.

“ My heart was completely shattered when you were taken by the Lord so abruptly. I wept for your wife, your parents, grandma and your brother and all those who love you so dearly. Even though you had little time as compared with your peers, I am in awe of how much the Lord had blessed you with, your intelligence, your courage, your achievements but above all, your steadfast love and faithfulness in serving the Lord. Now you are leading the way on this road to our eternal home, I pray that all who had crossed your pathway will through you be assured of the promises that the Lord has made.

“ Our hearts ache with the loss of Jeremy, but we are comforted knowing he is now in the loving presence of the Lord. Jeremy touched so many lives with his unwavering faith, kindness, and remarkable talents. We will always cherish the day he helped us select a piano in Balmain. As he tested the piano, playing a masterful piece with such beauty and skill, it was a true reflection of the gifts God had blessed him with. His life was a testament to God’s grace, and his legacy continues to inspire us all. We are keeping you and your family in our prayers, asking that God’s love and comfort surround you during this time.

“ Dear Amelia, Edwin, Rowena, Ashley and family,

Condolences on the unexpected passing of beloved Jeremy. He was a great childhood friend of our Samuel and we fondly treasure those memories. Jeremy was such a bright, kind and gentle soul who touched everyone who got to know him. His resilience, ambition and quiet determination were a testament to his faith in God. Jeremy's wonderful academic and career achievements greatly inspired Samuel and motivated him to pursue higher studies too. Although Jeremy will be missed by all of us, we know he is at peace with our Lord Jesus Christ.
