“ John was always very friendly with me when I picked up my photos from PK. We joked in Cantonese as I know a few words. Will miss you and your warm smile!

“ Uncle John was very close to his family, to his friends, but most of all his beautiful wife Cathy. John worked very hard and was a gifted business man. He helped his friends and family financially on many occasions. At one stage even the "Australian Chinese business association" wanted John to be one of their business advisors. Sleep in peace. God bless you uncle John. Love
Jason
