“ Hope our best friend, Patrick RIP. We had a talk last month and shared our happiness in upbringing our children and looking after our grand children. But all of a sudden, we learned this bad news and wished to extend our regard and condolence to his family. Hope Stella would soon recover from her sadness as May has come back from HK to stay with her mother.

We fought all these years with laughters in the mahjong table. Shared lots of loving days for more than half a century. It is not fair that you are gone now, leaving a broken promise - we are supposed to meet up in Hong Kong in 2020 for another happy gathering. Now all of a sudden, you are gone. May God be with you always and rest in peace. To Stella and all her family members - please accept our deepest condolences and do take good care of yourselves because this is what Patrick had always wanted for you all. Love and God bless.

Uncle Patrick is the best uncle I ever had. He lived with us since I was little, so my family is very close to him. Even I am far away from Australia, distance has no effect to our relationship. I have tremendous respect to him as he was the most caring and smartest uncle to me. It was my privilege being with him in his final journey. I was also able to catch up with his beautiful and loving care family. He was a blessing in my life, and I will forever carry him in my heart. May God bless and comfort uncle Patrick's family during this difficult time; please accept my sincere condolences!
