“ Uncle,

我還記得我們初次見面的時候，我覺得您非常似TVB的苗僑偉！那天是Hornsby Girls的朋友圈第一次到您的家玩兒過夜，您不但親自為我們新鮮炸了春卷給我們吃，您也樂意地“落手落腳”來幫我們set up電視機看電影。我馬上就看得出您是一位了不起的爸爸，這一點也讓我希望能夠認識您！於是，到了我們女孩子要睡覺的時候，我一個人到樓下的客廳找您，正式跟您打招呼。就憑一個招呼，我感到您的偉大和善良的心。過了這麼多年了，您的笑容，讚賞和指教一直給了我巨大的力量。謝謝您。

“ Harry

還記得小時候，每逢父母晚上政治學習，便會將我安置到你家，由黃叔叔看管我們..... 還記得有一次，你從澳洲來電，講起周老師曾經遭受的磨難..... 那一次，我是站在路邊吹著西北風聽你發洩心中的憤怒..... 後來你告訴我，因為用錯電話打過來，所以話費很貴[吡牙][吡牙][吡牙] 一切還像是發生在眼前..... 如今在天堂，相信你心中的一切怨恨和痛苦全部都會煙消雲散，留下的只有開心快樂。

“ Harry, I had met you only briefly just a few times at Vivien's house but I will always be grateful to the significant role you played and continue to play in Vivien's life.

I can't count the number of times I remember Vivien talking about you and your many passions. How you loved to watch your koi fish swim around, or how much you loved to go fishing and boating, or how you loved cars, motors and fixing car parts. I remember you to be welcoming, loving and knowledgable; qualities that continue to live on in Vivien. Hope you are resting in peace.

“ Dear Uncle Huang,

I remember meeting you a few times when I came over to spend time with Viv. You really lit up the room with your smile and were always so welcoming. It felt just like home right away with family dinners, even down to the food. I also remember going on a walk with Viv and her proudly showing me a photo of you smiling with a fish you had just caught. It was such a happy sight to see. I can see the huge impact you have left on the whole family in shaping them to be the amazing people they are today.

You will be missed.

“ Dear Uncle Huang,

I met you once when we had a sleepover at Viv's house. You accommodated a dozen loud, giggling teens and welcomed us all so warmly. When I look at Viv, I can see that she is an embodiment of all the beautiful traits that you possessed. She is kind, supportive, funny and an incredible friend who is always looking out for others. Thank you for raising her like this and giving us the opportunity to have such a lovely friend.

My heartfelt condolences and prayers are with you and your loved ones.

“ Harry, from the handful of times that I've met you, you've been so warm, kind and welcoming. Viv has always spoken so proudly of the many cheesecakes that you've baked and all the assorted hobbies that you've gotten into along the way! I'll never forget Viv showing me a picture of the small koi fish that you'd bought (the latest hobby at the time) swimming in your pool and then declaring a few months later that the fish had gone missing because the pool was so big! Thank you Harry, for giving us the gift of having a friend like Viv, and making her the wonderful person that she is.

“ Dear Uncle Huang,

I think I met you only once but that one memory will never leave me. You had baked poppy seed cake which was absolutely amazing. I immediately praised you and Viv told me you would be delighted to hear it so I remember saying it to your face and your face brightened up with the innocence and love I respect so much in Viv.

I still remember you walking in that day and the aura of the kitchen changed completely. There was something about you, a cheerfulness, a kindness that I could not explain or understand at the time but I felt it and that memory will never leave me. You managed to touch my life within 5 minutes so I can't even begin to imagine how many more lives you have touched.

I may not have had much contact with you but I have gotten to know you through Viv's stories about some of the conversations she had with you, your unconventional perspectives and I remember thinking what a cool dad. I've heard about your fish pool experimentation and you purchasing the boat and I have been able to understand where Viv got her love for trying new things.

Your 3 amazing, strong, courageous girls are testament to your amazing personality that I can't even put in words. Thank you for all that you have done. Rest in peace and my heartfelt condolences and love is with you and your family.

“ Dear Uncle Huang,

I've never got to met you but through Vivien, I can see what an amazing father you were. Her humor, laughter and bubbiness were all traits that testify to your honest, loving and positive character.

Prayers and deepest condolences to your family: Auntie Huang, Vivien, Betty and Amy. I pray for God to strengthen and comfort your family in this time of mourning. Although you have departed first, in Jesus, there is great hope that we can meet again.

My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.”*

“ Hi Mr Huang,

I remember I met you briefly when I came to pick up my bird from your house. While it was brief, I could immediately sense you were a man who kept good faith in people and a honest and kind person. I can also see it in the legacy you left, and I'm sure your children will continue to make you proud.

I knew you as my friend's dad, but I feel like I've known you through Vivien and her outlook on life too. Thank you for inspiring me through her bright personality and unshakable goodwill.

All the best, rest in peace.

“ Harry,

Thank you for being one of my dads best friends, and for being the dad to one of mine. My dad always talked about the fishing trips you would go on in your boat, they were some of his best memories.

Thank you for always being so welcoming anytime we wanted to stop by, and for always helping us with our electrical problems. Thank you for all the family vacations we went on together, they were truly the best times. I'll never forget them.

Thank you for the time you helped sign our passport forms cause we were in a hurry. Thank you for rushing over from your boating trip to help Betty with the car that one time in April. Thank you for the countless times you'd help us set up the Wii when we'd come over to play. All of these moments seem so small, but they'll stay with me forever.

You've been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I'll miss your smile and the joy that you brought to our lives.

Thank you for everything.

“ 黄叔叔, you've always had me over as Viv's friend; I've slept over last minute after nights out, dined with your family, played with Alaska and Juni, you've helped us transport and pack when Viv and I went overseas, and you've even offered to rent me your retirement home when you learnt I was looking for a new place to move. I have received so much of your hospitality and kindness and I am regretfully sorry I was unable to give back in kind, not even convey the volume of my gratitude before your passing.

I could always feel the strength of your influence in every remark made and story told by Viv about her father, and I have always admired how you were able to craft and support such a strong family. There will always be an empty void without you, when after all, your character and love was larger than life.

Thank you for everything, I hope you are at peace and all my heartfelt condolences are with your family; 黄阿姨, Alice, Viv, Betty, Amy, and everybody who knew you.

“ It’s been said before many times over, but Harry Huang was a great man, not only for his kindness and his humour, but for the legacy he leaves behind. It stuns me how little words there are for his passing. He is the father of my close friend, Betty Huang, and if his daughters are anything to go by, he was one of the best fathers a person could have. Stories have been told of his tenacious dedication to his backyard pond, and his love for boating and cooking. It would not be an exaggeration to say that my friends would go to war over his curry. But what I remember most is how he treated us with great humour and affection. In my head, he is always smiling. A person has to be exceedingly warm-hearted to leave an impression like that on his daughter’s friend.

I thank Harry for his humour, the great kindness with which he treated everyone, but most of all for his time with us. I hope that he is at peace. It was an honour to know him, and he will not be forgotten.

“ Uncle,

i shared high school with Vivien, and all my memories of you are of your devotion to your family- from when you had half a dozen girls sleeping in your living room, to when you kindly made dinner for us, to when Vivien called you because our cars wouldnt start during a road trip. Thank you for sharing your last few months with me, and welcoming me even when you were tired. I hope you are comfortable now, and at peace.

Thank you Uncle, your love was so evident in the way Auntie looked at you, and how your daughters grew. You are missed, achingly so.

Sending my sincerest condolences, love, and appreciation.

“ Thanks Harry for being the best neighbour ever! So quick to help when we needed lights installed or our tow bar removed. So generous and kind to Tomas and especially Annabel who lived more at your place than ours during the school holidays.

What laughter and wonderful smells we had wafting over the fence from your outdoor kitchen.

We will miss your big heart - your passion for life and willingness to share it with others.

As for neighbourhood mysteries - only Alaska knows what you said to him - miew miew miew and what ever happened to Fudgey??

We are sad to have to say goodbye today. Our prayers, thoughts and love go out to Aunty Jessica, Alice, Viven, Betty and Amy. Our hope is that in Jesus we will meet again. Then perhaps we can be neighbours again.

“ Harry, we are deeply missing you!

You are kind and warm. You always have a smile face.

You are young, handsome and tall forever. What a beautiful image you remain in our heart.
