“ As kids, it was always a joy to receive her upon her return from daily work; she was always bringing back some preserved tid-bits as snacks for us. She was also the kind soul who took me to the Kinrara Army Camp in Puchong where she worked, to consult the ophthalmologist whom prescribed my short-sightedness. I won't be my specs-adorned handsome self if not for her. Thank you, aunty. May God bless you.

“ Our deepest condolences to the Leong family on the demise of their beloved mother. We cherish the short moment together with Aunty Leong (Kum Moh) when we met up with her during our visit to Sydney in June 2016. These photos with Uncle and Aunty Leong were captured when both of them looked so cheerful and radiant. This is the only memories left behind by them. Indeed it is a precious and memorable moment. Now that she is reunited with Uncle, may her soul rest in peace. We will miss both of them.
