“ Vivian 親愛的家人們，
在此送上我最深切的慰問，願主親自安慰你們一家，並保守喪禮順利完成。深信Vivian 現在安隱在主的懷裏。

I knew Vivian when we working in Sydney, she is a very kind lady n positive thinking, I thank for her encouragement during my hardest time in my life, I am so thankful to have a good friend like her .

I believe Vivian is sleeping peacefully in heaven now and we'll see each other again 1 day there.

*Miss you n love you my dear sister in Christ,
Daisy*

I came to know Vivian and her beautiful family by the Grace of God during her illness. What a beautiful soul she has! Her charming smiles and willingness of staying prayers together , trusting God's given peace always with her.

To Vivian family: May our Lord comfort you during this difficult time.

I miss you Vivian.

Love you, Helena

“ I know Vivian since kindergarten. We both lived in Shatin, Hong Kong. Indeed, just on January 27, 2023, Vivian and I exchanged quite a few voice messages on WhatsApp, reminiscing our past. We marveled that we were in the same school, SAME CLASS since kindergarten till Form 7 when we graduated from MST. What a blessing! We thanked God for this ‘coincidence’ of putting us together. We were friends since the school days, but what really brought us closer recently was the faith she and I shared. We were very happy talking about the elementary school stories, even our kindergarten teacher! Those conversations were sweet memories for me to cherish, not knowing those were our final conversations. Vivian hasn’t changed since she was young. She was assertive, steadfast, genuine, true to herself and bold to ask questions. She always had critical thinking, yet caring and positive all the time. She had very unique and pretty Chinese hand writing, which she told me her dad taught her. I am very blessed to have known her for over 54 years. And I was so glad seeing her baptized online. She is now HOME, free from pain, finally. I miss you, Ah Lee.
