“ Dear Auntie, I too remember those early days of lovely dinners at your home, mahjong playing and your loud laughter with that wonderful smile. May u well rest in peace. Unfortunately, we could not be there today on your ceremony of farewell, but we will be thinking of you and those closest to u.

“ Looking back, there have been many wonderful memories of Aunty but one that stood out the most for me was her love for playing Mahjong.

I remember many years ago, my mum, dad, my sisters and I were invited for dinner at Auntie's home and we arrived there much earlier as my mum was a very keen mahjong player and so was Aunty.

Mahjong started early that afternoon and continued till late that night.

The game of Mahjong was definitely the highlight in the house and also the noisiest. What was special about watching that game wasn't so much the competitiveness nature of the players but to see the joy, laughter and smile of the each player in particular Aunty (when she wins).

These special moments will never be forgotten.

A loved ones passing is never easy, may her fond memories and passage of time heal your grief.

My heartfelt condolences go out to Andrew & Polly, Bill & Eunice, Colin, Judy & Carina.

“ May fond memories of Auntie bring you comfort during this hard time in your life. Look back on all the good memories you were able to have and smile at the fact that you were able to share these before Auntie passed away. I will miss seeing Auntie walking along Anzac Parade between her home & Pacific Sq with her grocery shopping, her famous & superlicious home-made turnip cake, brown sugar New Year cake with dried red dates, water chestnut cake, home grown super hot chillies that she brings over to our family, meeting her for Yum Cha at our local Chinese restaurant, playing colored tiny cards with the other Aunties back in the days...list can just goes on. Auntie in many ways was also a good cook & she has kindly exchange recipes with our family. Lastly, will remember all the good deeds & love Auntie showed to me & my family. My hearts and prayers go out to Lam Family - Andrew & Polly, Bill & Eunice, Colin, Judy & Carina.

Our deepest condolences to all of you on the demise of your beloved mum whom I remembered was a great cook who would whip out some good hearty meals from her cosy little kitchen. We wish you well in the days ahead. May you draw strength from one another and from the sweet memories of your mum. I hope and pray that somewhere in all this, you all will find comfort and peace in letting your mum rest in peace. Take care. Helen Chong & family.
