“ Richard, your mom was a very good woman. I remember staying at your place many times at Jalan Inai when I was young. She was very nice to me. She cooked breakfast for me.
Our deepest condolences to you and your family. Take good care. May the comfort and the peace of the Lord be with you and your family.

“ Ahma was the sweetest-
She allowed us to hang out in her kitchen despite the noise we were making. We love the closet that stocked the maggi and she'll tell us “got barley in the fridge”.
We felt right at home because of the warmth and kindness she showed us during our teenage years.
She will be missed.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to Auntie Connie and her family.

She was so generous and welcoming. My fondest memory from the family home in KL was the wall of photos. It showed her life achievements - her loving family. We are forever grateful she showed us her laksa recipe. Its inspiration will live on in Newcastle. May she rest in peace in heaven.

“ Today, we sadly say goodbye to your mom/grandmother/great grandmother. We share your loss and know that she has had an enriched life living to a grand age. Having family in different parts of the world does make it harder to be with everyone, but she, having seen everyone in Sydney before she passed, she would have been very happy.

Thank you Sah Koh for your love of family and extended family. You have cooked a good many meals that we have all enjoyed together. You and our mother were great friends and did a lot of visiting and helping each other. You have told us lots of tales of us growing up and our parents' lives that we never knew. You were “full of beans” and talked all the eight hour flight home to KL. You were great with Jim even though you spoke no English.

We love you and will miss you. We bid you a wonderful journey to be with your husband and we know that you will Rest In Peace in God!

We celebrate your life!

“ The Wong family are deeply saddened by the news of LIM Soh Guat passing away. Marian held a very high regard and affection for her mother-in-law. She was caring including being an excellent cook and homemaker. We all found her to be very friendly, engaging, thoughtful and delightful.

We wish your family peace and comfort as you grieve.

“ We met Auntie a few times during our visit to KL in 2019. Despite the brief encounter, we appreciated her warmth (thumbed up seeing us with repeated visits), her hospitality (offering Connie & William to take us to good local foodies) and her loving character being so welcoming and sweet to us. We will look up to her as a role model on these qualities. We know Auntie is now resting in peace and continue to give her family blessings in another dimension. Very grateful having an opportunity meeting Auntie, RIP ❤️ ... Jenny & Dominic (HK/Sydney)

With heartfelt condolences to you and family Richard Khoo on the departure of your beloved mom. Tq for the invite to her memorial service via live stream. Your family is blessed with this amazing lady, simple, humble with awesome legacies for her family. She is indeed the proverbial 31:10-31 wife and mother. The angels in heaven are celebrating her eternal life in the presence and joyful fellowship of Jesus our Lord. You have a wonderful mum. May the peace of the Lord be with you and your family in this time of bereavement. Be comforted with the happy wonderful memories of this special lady. With respect and regards, Jane shum (MUI Bank/Hong Leong Bank, Jln Hang Lekiu branch)

Dear Robert and Helen and family, Our sincere condolences on the passing of your mother, mother-in-law, grandma, and great grandma. You have been very blessed by our Lord to be able to spend so much quality time with matriarch Madam Lim in Sydney. May God grant you peace and comfort. We remember you in our prayers. In Christ, Daniel, Stivia and family.
