“ I have known Mark for 30 years now, from when he was working at Manly Hospital to RNS and now at Macquarie. Mark was always willing go out of his way to help others and was always willing to share his knowledge.

Farewell Mark, you will be missed by all of us.

My deepest sympathies go to your family and loved ones.

“ I will remember Mark fondly as a not only a colleague, friend but a mentor who always found time to greet you with a smile, kind words and much wisdom. He always saw the best in people and valued them not for what they did but what they could achieve.

His passing was a shock and he was taken too soon, I will miss him and sincerely wish Mark's family my deepest sympathy at this terrible time. You are all in my prayers especially during this pandemic and dealing with his loss, my condolences and understanding to you all as no words can ever make this period of grief easy.

God bless.

“ I know Mark more than 40 years when we were working in ITS in Hong Kong, but we were in different departments and worked in different buildings. Until Mark migrated to Sydney and old mates gathering started in 1990s, I began to know Mark more. He always gave me the impression of a jolly fellow. His smiles, friendly, helpful and gregarious charisma has brought lots of happy and memorable moments in all our gatherings.

Each time I dropped by his book shop in Chatswood, I enjoyed every moment having a nice chat with him and Cathy. I admired his attitude he had in his work, his full of energy in his life and his love to Cathy and his family.

He will be missed but he will always live amongst us friends.

“ I count it as both a privilege and and honour to have known, worked with and managed Mark over the 13 years I have been with NSW Health.

I was deeply saddened and shocked to learn of his illness and then passing.

Mark leaves a hole in the team that will be very, very hard to fill: his knowledge was broad and freely shared, his enthusiasm infectious and his dedication and commitment to helping others aspirational.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family at this time.

Mark had a tremendous impact on all who got to know him and his dedication to work.

The office won't ever be the same without Mark and his expertise. I will never forget the warmth his smile brought to the office each and every day. He had a good, kind, caring, helpful nature and was always willing to help with his expertise, even though he was always busy.

As I sat in the cubicle next to Mark and we always managed to have a good laugh even though we were busy.

It was and been a privilege and honour to work with Mark, and to be his friend. He treated me like a son and always gave me advice. I will always miss Mark. May he rest in peace.

“ I am very thankful to have had Mark as my loving brother. He was kind, gentle, smart and hard-working. It was a great pleasure to talk to Mark as he was so knowledgeable and funny. He had a smile on his face throughout the good and the bad.

He attended night school after dinner and long days of work. From his persistence and endurance, he became an engineer and obtained his master's degree, and he nurtured the younger generations by teaching in night schools. When he was a department head in Hong Kong, Mark trained and developed his staff, and they would compliment him for being an excellent manager.

Mark was the eldest son of our family. His words moved with an authority that made us listen and follow him without question. He brought his siblings to explore the neighborhood and made sure that we were safe and having fun. We would put on our parents' clothes to re-enact dramas and take pictures. Mark dressing up as our mom brought us lots of laughter – then and now, to this day.

Even when Mark and Cathy started their family, he would still visit our parents often. He brought our parents and me to fascinating places for dinners and also on vacations overseas. He always had his family and our parents in mind.

Mark moved to Australia in the 80's and I moved to Canada around the same time. Mark would call me during his lunch breaks to ask how I was doing. What a nice brother! When we visited Sydney, Mark brought us to the points of interest and made us good food. From your hospitality, Mark, we knew that you loved us dearly.

Mark, I know that you are looking over us from up above. We love and miss you very much.

Love,
Vicky

“ 彰哥，

難捨永別！您是我生命的啓蒙者，多謝愛護扶持，祝一路好走！

我們兄弟姐妹感情一向都很好，一齊成長，有不小快樂時光，你努力讀書和工作，事業成就有目共睹，更幫助爸媽帶領家庭進步，小時我溫習功課時，你會在旁讚我乖，真窩心！往外國讀書，你叫我安心，一切妥當，出來工作還天天坐你車上班呢！

兒子承昀出世，你叫工人買魚煲粥仔給他吃，對父母關懷備至，經常回港探望，最近一次還帶媽媽去海洋公園遊玩。我們到雪梨旅遊，天天一起吃喝玩樂，多麼快樂呵！

我們對你的愛會永遠留於心底！

“ 敬愛的彰哥

你的噩耗傳來，深感難過，無限唏噓，數十年的回憶，湧上心頭。

第一次見你是在靖詩去加拿大讀書前在大東電報員工會所舉辦的告別舞會，你給我的印象是一個平易近人，開朗而腦袋靈活的哥哥。

成為你的妹夫後，有幸和你同住一個屋邨-康怡花園，時常得到你及大嫂對我一家人的照顧，並常給我們意見怎樣去處事待人，令靖詩和我獲益良多。還記得有一段很長的時間乘坐你的私家車返工，差不多每天都在一起.....

後來你一家移民去澳洲，見面的日子雖然不多，但我們仍然互相記掛，當2000年我們一家去澳洲申請延期移民時，你對我們的愛護，照顧及關懷仍然歷歷在目，銘記於心。

Wilson 同 Kitty 是你引以為傲的子女，他們是難得的有為青年，二人都事業有成，而且又係社會棟樑，亦都非常孝順長輩，請你安心，他們一定會好好照料Kathy。

雖然你走了，去了很遠的地方，但每當我仰望星空，你開朗的歡顏和以往的美好回憶定會重現眼前.....願你安息，一路好走。

“ Mark was a nice person to work with. This dated back to mid 70s when we were both working in SITA Hong Kong Telecom House. The last-generation telecom infrastructure forced operation to request help from Mark and his team, so frequently, even in the middle of night. Mark and his team member, no questions, no challenge to our request. Soon after we hung up the phone, he was already at the front door. After the job done, he used to stay back for a while to ensure everything was stable. It was our procedure to send him a message confirming all back to normal.

“回想當年仍是黃毛丫頭，初踏入社會工作，感恩遇上了你，除了得到你在工作上的耐心教導，讓我在事業上得以向上，工餘時你也指導了我做人處事的竅門。還記得我們經常外出午膳，兩個人吃足四個人的套餐，抱著肚子回公司。那些年，我們還一起教夜校，大家心靈相通，合作愉快，獲得了主辦方的嘉許。

九十年代移民澳洲，得到你及太太的悉心照顧，讓我們很快便安頓下來。往後的日子，大家都為口奔馳，少了時間見面。

數月前得知你患病，正在安排大夥兒一起飲茶相聚，暢談往事，可惜那天你已不能出席。可幸之後到醫院探望你，你也能認得我。而在封城前一天的相聚，原來是我們在世上最後的一次，希望那小小的按摩，能舒緩一點你肉體上的不適。

我的好友，我的良師，謹祝你在彼岸得享永遠的福樂，也請你開定位，待我們收工後，再來與你相聚。

Safely Home

*I am home in heaven, dear ones;
All's so happy, all so bright!
There's perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely Home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly
trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.*

And He came Himself to meet me in the way so hard to tread;

*And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond death's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
so you must not idly stand;
Do it now while life remaineth,
You shall rest in Jesus' Land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you Home!*

“ For the past 35 years, Uncle Mark has been an amazing friend and family member. My first vivid memory of Uncle Mark was created when I visited him in Australia and lived at his apartment. That was also my first trip to Australia. Back then, though my sole focus was having fun and playing video games, I also took note of his kindness and presence. He would always smile and greet me with enthusiasm.

I returned to live at his home once or twice throughout the years and slowly I realized that Uncle Mark was an intelligent man who was full of wisdom. When his family visited Hong Kong, we would get together and have family gatherings. In 2012, one of my cousins, Hong held his wedding ceremony in Sydney, Australia. As a closely bonded group, Uncle Mark and the rest of the family planned a small trip around Sydney, Tasmania and other regions within the country. It was one of the best trips I have ever had in my life thus far.

Now that i am older, I regret not having seizing the opportunity to get to know Uncle Mark on a more personal level. I would like to express my condolences to Uncle Mark's immediate family members and I pray that Uncle Mark is currently at a better place, watching us from up there in heaven.

Till we meet again, Uncle Mark. Please watch over the others if you can.

Love,
Randy

“ I got to know Uncle Mark through family vacations to Australia and remembered him for his big smile and warm, welcoming energy. He would pick us up from the airport rife with enthusiasm, and his excitement would spill over as we talked and made up for lost time. Although he was halfway across the world, he was always within reach through the stories my mom would share about his tireless work ethic or how he was a great brother. We will miss Uncle Mark, but he will continue to be a part of our lives in the stories we tell and the memories we share.

“大學畢業後第一份工作，任職ITS、在大東新水星大廈SITA 通訊中心返工。Mark 就是我的職業上第一個老細。他的認真、至於臻善的工作態度，令人敬佩。他和Anthony 倡議的亞太地區技術支援團隊、給我很多機會去其他國家和城市、使我第一次有機會去澳洲，認識當時沒有想到會移民定居的國家。八、九十年代，很多ITS/SITA 同事朋友，包括Mark、陸續移民澳洲悉尼定居。一班舊同事，朋友聚首在同一城市，時常飲茶、食飯、吹水，亦係人生一大樂事。在他臨走前一年，我們亦經常聚會，吹水生活。人生短暫，祝願Mark 一路走好。

“ I first met Mark in 1980 when I joined SITA. Even though we were working in different offices, we had a close relationship in work, as well as having lunch together and chatting during the occasional days when I was not taking work trips. His knowledge and dedication was crucial to keep the network running and give me peace of mind. Especially memorable were the time when we went together to Philips in Holland for several weeks of training in October of 1983, when we stayed together in a bungalow.

Mark was one of the key people that inspired me to immigrate to Sydney in 1990. While we were no longer working together, we kept in touch. Through many years we met almost every week when I visited his bookshop in Chatswood. He was always smiling and happy. We talked about travelling even though our interests were somewhat different, as I wanted to do some hiking whereas he and Cathy enjoyed more relaxed holidays, especially cruising.

He is greatly missed as an ex-colleague but more importantly as a friend.

“ Uncle Mark was a caring and thoughtful man. In my 2015 visit to Sydney, Mark warmly welcomed me to the city, ensured I had everything I needed when staying at his home, and was generously dedicated his time to create a great experience for my visit. This included multiple days of driving to sightsee, treating me to all the meals we shared, and other acts of kindness. I'm thankful for the time I was able to share with Mark, the life experiences we were able to create, and the opportunity to connect with him in person while I was a young adult.

Rest in peace, Mark. You will be cherished by your family and loved ones.

“ 相識四十年，每次見到 Mark Chiu 都見到他的笑容，以前同事的時候常有電話聯絡，在交談時也會感覺到他的笑容。

在澳洲和 Mark 見面較多的機會，就是週末在 Chatswood 的商店中。Mark 不單是週末在幫忙，言談之中，也可以知道他對太太 Cathy 在商務上是十分支持的。說到 Cathy，他們倆一個共同愛好就是飲食。最近幾次的舊同事見面都是聚餐，Mark 繼續享受不同的菜式，有時談到食物，仍可以看到他眼中的光芒，面上的笑容也和四十年前一樣。
