

Mrs Mei Hin CHAN

September 24, 1917 - September 27, 2023

Mrs Mei Hin Chan passed on peacefully on Sept 27 2023, at the Cooina Court, BaptistCare Home in Macquarie Park NSW.

Mei Hin was born September 1917 in Doumen District, Zhongshan Guangdong Province. She married our father Cheung Tai Chan when she was 18 and moved to Hong Kong to raise the 8 children they have. She is survived by 7 children of eight, Kim, Chor, Pon, Veronica, Angelina, Silvia, and Dawson. Unfortunately, Lina, her oldest daughter is no longer with us today.

She is also survived by 11 Grandchildren, Jerome, Dylan, Jevon, Pierre, James, Charmaine, Natasha, Samantha, Denise, Jonathan, and Christina. 20 Great grandchildren and 2 Great Great grandchildren.

Our mother migrated to Hong Kong, then a British colony, in the late 30s - early 40s. Born and raised in China, Mei Hin never forgot that she was a daughter of China, frequently went back over the British border with a love for the family who stayed back in the Communist China regime, taking rations brought from Hong Kong during the rough time of the culture revolution.

Mum migrated to Australia in 1975. She adored her grandchildren and the great grandchildren. As you can see in the tribute photos, she was loved by so many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mum became a devoted Christian in Sydney and her faith never wavered. She found many friends in her church. So, on behalf of my siblings and the Chan clan I thank you once more for paying respect to our mother.

Relatives and friends who would like to send flowers, it is suggested to send your tributes in form of donations to your church and/or favourite charity in place.
