“ Babe, I am so grateful to have met you. That fateful trip down the coast and that car ride changed us forever. True friends are hard to come by and someone as passionate, lively and loving as you is as rare as a rare pokemon. You lived every moment to fullest and taught me so much. I'll always remember our uni days when we didn't sleep to finish out assignments, ralphie chewing on my glue lid and our fanatastic coordination of always bumping into one another when running low on sleep. I love you sweetie, this isn't goodbye. We'll meet again on the other side of the rainbow bridge :) ”

“ Although we did not grow up together, I am glad we reconnected in Melbourne last year. I've always known you by your nick name Lia...my dear cousin.... so I am going to stick with Lia.

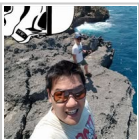

I want this piece of tribute to be about the good memories and I am glad that I have some with you... that time at the hot spring (where I got speeding tickets - back and forth, twice on the same day), the winery (you are such a foodie), that shopping day (was so much fun, I will keep that same jacket we bought that day), the brunch at hammer and tong where i was late (like really late), and the fact that we both established that we have high cheek bones (runs in the family) ... and also that both of us have lots of parking and speeding tickets (i am sure we both improved a lot since then)... all good times...

You are one of the most kind hearted, positive and loving person I know. You will be missed.

*Thanks for the memories, much love xx

“ For the past 10 years we have been nothing less than best friends aka sisters. There are so many memories from alibaba to coffee dates to road trips to clubbing to chilling at your house.

Babe you are one of the most inspirational people I know, the ambition to challenge yourself, care for your friends and family and the ability to love are just a few of so much more.

I will treasure the memories we had and the laughs we shared but most of all I will miss you more than you can imagine. I know your in heaven smiling down on us and will see you again.

*Luff you long time babe
xoxo*

“ bebinaa, anen naaa anen amuh. Im done grieving you, you may go in peace. It was my pleasure to know such a very generous and sincere person like you. As we growing old and dusty together, we sees lots of those who cares and those who are really sincere towards us. And im glad you counted me as one of yours and you are mine. I will cherish every hellos with you and will never say goodbye. Stick around in my heart babe, i promise i will take a good care of my dog as you took care ralph and george. I promise i will gain weight and eat proper foods. I may loss all late night facetime with you, but all the stupidity remains forever in my heart. Sayang lu banyak nyet. See me from above and i will always make u proud. Never ending friendship! Xoxo, your inem!💋

“ Miming... I still remember all those days in primary school where and when we used to hang out and had recess, sama Chrestella too. Fun days! Good memories.

Although we all moved to different places and lost touch, it's always been a pleasure to see a familiar face when we meet, be it through friends or the incidental bumping into each other at different events.

You were always such a positive and cheerful person. I've been blessed in this life to have met and known a friend like you. You'll be missed. xoxo “ Hallo nek, missing you. Our almost 20 years of friendship will never be forgotten. From how we met in primary school, spending every recess together, competing on how much chilli can you take, to moving to Sydney and back home to jakarta. Now that i am with a baby, Joey loves the gift you got for him. We miss you dearly and your crazy, sweet, charming person that you are. i love you nek. Rest in peace. Love always your childhood friend, Chrestella
