“ My Grandma, my 婆婆 (Po Po), you were a woman of extraordinary grace, elegance and dignity. You were not just a grandmother to me, you were a beacon of strength and gave me an endless supply of bright smiles and warm hugs.

I will cherish our time spent cooking, laughing and travelling together. I loved listening to all your interesting stories whilst enjoying a bowl of your delicious sticky rice.

Just as you shared your wisdom with me, I will pass on your stories and teachings to my own daughter, ensuring your legacy of love and strength lives on.

Rest peacefully Grandma. We love you and will remember you always. Your wisdom will continue to shine brightly in our lives.

Lots of Love, Karen

“ Dear Grandma, you are always marked by acts of kindness and selflessness. Your Caring nature knew no bounds, extending a gentle touch to all who crossed your path. Whether it was a soothing word, a warm embrace, or a homemade meal, you had a unique way of making everyone feel valued and loved.

Although we are not related, but you have always been a grandma to us, I have always remembered your smile when you first saw Rhys, the laughter, and our love, when we visited you.

I enjoyed the time we spent talking about HK drama, and you always beat me in finishing watching the latest HK Drama series.

You are not just a grandmother, but a ray of sunshine on even the cloudiest days, a constant source of joy and laughter.

In your home, happiness was not just a state of being but a way of life. your friendly chatter and genuine interest in others made the gathering unforgettable, creating a sense of family that extended beyond blood ties.

It was heartbreaking when I first visited you in the hospital, and when you were at the aged care, but the look on your face after a good hair wash and well-grooming is unforgettable. You are beautiful and always beautiful.

When I knew you had left peacefully, there were mixed feelings. I was happy, knowing you didn't have to go through any pain, when you left, but sad, knowing you have left.

As we bid farewell, Grandma, knowing you are in heaven now, watching above us and your family, rest peacefully dear Grandma, your happiness was contagious, and your friendship was a gift to us all. May your laughter echo in our hearts always.

Rest in peace "PoPo".

Michael, Olivia, and Rhys H.

I never you were such an author Michael....even though I know they're all words from the heart. Thank you for your beautiful words of remembrance. The doors of our home has always been, and will always be, open to you and your gorgeous family. Thank you for your love and care throughout our times at Uniting right through until now.... Love your sister from another mother xoxo Julie

“Mum, you have taken me in as one of your own, you have put up with my temper (from our earlier days); supported us when we need you; loved your grand-kids immeasurably and although vulnerable at best of times....you would show mighty strength when it comes to your kids/family and at the mahjong table 💖

You were so very loved by all who have known you and will be sorely missed by many.

You were Miss Hong Kong' at your Aged Care Social Club; tough competitor at the mahjong table; much loved grandma who gives loving face massages, especially to those with chubby faces 😊❤️ but I won't name who...

I am so grateful to have spent the past so many years taking care of you alongside your son and grand-kids and I know you will find peace and comfort now in God's favour and will be the new shining Star overlooking us 💖🙏💖
