“ My dearest aunt, I'm devastated to learn the news of your passing. You were always very kind to me, treating me like your own son. I'm sorry that I haven't kept in touch with you as much as I should have. I will never forget you, and you will always have a special place in my heart.

“ My dear 'Kwan auntie' was a strong, wise, capable and funny lady. She worked alongside my late mother and pretty much watched my siblings and I grow up, we played and ran around the grounds of The Grantham Hospital, my brother and I were seriously everywhere. My mum talked about her work a lot and her name came up all the time but I never really got to know her until the past 15 years.

I was saddened to learn that I can no longer talk to her or see her now. Because of her knowledge, I talked to her regularly when I was looking after my elderly parents in the latter part of their lives. She always listened patiently, shared her knowledge and wisdom, for that I am forever grateful. We did fun things too, discussing how best to make some desserts...

Many times she has shown me that she has strong faith in God and I admired her dedication to your belief. I must say witnessing that has strengthened my faith as well.

Dear Kwan auntie, thank you again for being a wonderful work partner and friend to my mum, the Godmother of my daughter and lending your ears and making me laugh always.

Rest in peace, and I will meet up with you when the time comes.

“ I knew Auntie Irene through her niece. Auntie Irene was a friendly and warm person, very sociable, enjoyed people's company, enjoyed chatting and eating. I remember the times we shared meals and laughters together with her niece and my sister. I remember fondly my visits to her at the Little Sisters of the Poor, had afternoon coffee and strolled around when she showed me her neighborhood. I have always been glad for Auntie Irene to be so well supported and cared for by her loving nieces, family and the caring sisters, nuns and friends at the Little Sisters of the Poor. Auntie Irene is with God now who will look after her as they always have been throughout Auntie Irene's rich and meaning life. Love, Barbara

“ Dear Auntie Irene 八姨: You will be dearly missed. When we were young, you took all nephews and nieces to watch movies (black and white) in Hong Kong. When I grew older, you taught me to pray to the Lord. Living closely on the same street when I was a kid, I saw you coming back from school in tidy uniform. Since our family moved and all kids grew up in different parts of the world, I was puzzled when you joined the Sister of the Poor in Australia. It was till later I realized the call of God upon you when I was baptized. Although only connected with you one or two times by phone when my mother, your sister, passed away, I am always waiting to see you again. God has His plan, we will meet in heaven at our eternal rest. Teddy 兆源. Amen.

我們看的是三傻笑片或卡通片，都是假日早場式公餘場，如不是第三街的真光便是太平戲院，日子過得真快，就好像是昨天發生的，我們都已是六、七十歲老人，若在街上發生意外，明天報章上便登“有一老人.....”。

多年來學了一點， If I can forgive, I will forgive. If I cannot forgive, I will forget.

人生便會快樂點。
