“ Dear Auntie, Uncle and family,

We are deeply saddened by the passing of Great-Auntie. We will always remember her kindness and her smile, and our happy memories together in Cambodia. We were very touched to have been able to meet again in Australia so many years afterwards.

May Great-Auntie rest in peace with our loved ones. We will keep you and your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Pao-Chin Tang, my aunt and elder sister to my mom, you will be missed by me and many others.

To me, you represent compassion, generosity, wisdom, dedication and fortitude.

Your compassion and generosity is exemplified by taking on the sponsorship of our family and bringing us from a war-torn country to the safe haven of Australia. That generosity continued when you opened your home to us while we learnt to adopt to the western life.

Your wisdom was sought after as you guided our family to become independent and to make a living for ourselves and to help bring more relatives to Australia who were also caught in Cambodia.

Knowing that bringing so many of your nieces and nephews as well your sisters would cause a lot of impact to yourself and your family, you did it anyway and for that I, my mom and all the people you sponsored are grateful and indebted to you.

We hope that you can rest in peace knowing that you have made a difference in the lives of many.

“ Dearest 4th aunt, you are like a mother to me ever since I arrived in Australia. You are quiet but a prominent figure to all of us. You lived your life with diligence and integrity, I model that. You sponsored me and my brother and sisters to Australia to give us a better life, I thank you! I'm proud to have an aunt like you.
