“ Peter, I had such fond memories of us working together at hkjc. You sat right next to me, separated by a partition. We talked a lot. I remember you said you were not the studious type but your wife can study and you were so proud of her accomplishments. I remember you drank 冬菇水 frequently. I remember... so many things... After I left hkjc, we were able to meet up in Singapore once. You came with Anita on her business trip. Sadly, we did not reconnect. Au revoir, my friend. May you rest in peace.

“ Dear Peter, 一齊在約翰團契事奉的日子彷彿還是在昨天, 你對團友仔的耐性及用風趣幽默的方法帶查經, 深受他們的愛戴。你也在信仰中給予我一個好好的榜樣, 多謝你! 你現在息了肉身的苦痛, 在天父懷中安息! 天家見你. ~主內樞庭

“ Dearest Dad

The time we spent together was never enough.

You showed me patience, persistence, perseverance and strength.

You were a quiet person, yet your actions speak more than words.

Thank you for everything.

You will always be missed.

“ Peter, you are a great testimony to the Lord with your faith in Christ in the time that we have known you.

Your cheerful nature and your appreciation of all things, even the smallest things in God's creation, is infectious.

It's been a privilege to have known you and to have studied God's word together.

Love in Christ
