Tribute Wall

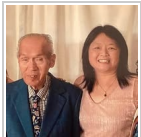

“ I remember when Peter arrived from China as a young boy, very shy at meeting his new cousins and facing a very different life than what he had known before. Big brother Joe was already working for my father in our fruit shop in Northbridge. We shared family meals at San Yicks and got to know each other a little in spite of the language barrier. Recently he and Patty accompanied my brother Trevor back to their home village in Guangdong. I know he was very helpful to Trevor. Be at peace Peter. You will be very much missed.

“ Awesome memories of our two family road trips together when we were kids. Uncle Peter made the best Prawn Cutlets in Sydney. RIP Uncle Peter, my condolences to the family.

*Thanks Dillon. Those road trips were the best. No such thing as seat belt safety in those days.
Much appreciated condolences by everyone especially mum.*
