“ Dear auntie..both danny and myself has known your family for like almost 27 years. During these time we know you were the solid rock that holds the mah family together through thick and thin. It has never been easy with the uprooting from malaysia to australia , the culture shock , the lifestyle etc...but you were always there for your children , your grandchildren as well as your great grandchildren. We always remembered you being able to light up the room with your radiant face and bubbly laugh.

We know you have finally found peace and have return to your Creator. We will missed you but we have also placed you in a special space in our heart where we keep happy memories of you...these memories will permanently stay with us... we love you auntie...danny & amy

“ To my dearest nieces and nephews,

It's very sad to hear that my sister passed away yesterday. I couldn't help thinking of her all the time. When your mum was young, she left the family to Malaysia. It must be very tough for her to settle down on her own. But your mum was brilliant, she not only raised the family but also took care of the old and young very well by working really hard. I am so proud of her and am glad that she lived a very happy life in her later years, as all of you appreciated her hard work and took good care of her.

I wish I could attend the funeral however due to the long distance between China and Australia I am afraid I could not make it, hopefully you could understand. I am sorry to your lost and may my sister rest in peace. I hope that all of you will cherish and take care of each other.

Take care !

Aunt BaoBing.

“ Madam Ng,

*雖然我們沒有見過面, 也不認識, 但多年來都在你的卡寫上祝福語.
離開, 並不是結束, 而是另一個新的開始。*

願你一路好走!
