“Dad, you should be proud and be able to rest in peace knowing you have left your legacy in your daughters. As a son in law, I am proud to have married a Choy girl. They reflect your life in many ways - tough and resilient, but show compassion and care for others. The care for you in your tough times were commendable and I wish my children will do the same for me when the time comes.

Although you were reserved in many ways, I understand your heart was good from the many conversations we shared together talking about your views either politics, business or about life in general. I felt extremely comfortable around you and always looked forward to your conversation and not to mention your skills around the kitchen. I somehow like the same foods as you - like the duck tongues and lap yuk.

You have instilled great values within your daughters. Berlinda is a great mum and a great wife who now are instilling the same values to our children - your grandchildren. You can rest in peace knowing that the next generation is in good hands. We will make sure you will continue to see them grow up into fine adults.

Although you have left us in this world, you will always remain in our memories and our hearts.

Love Son in Law Thai.

“ On behalf of the Choy family, we would like to thank those who have supported dad through his hardship post stroke, and have encouraged us along the way.

Firstly, thank you Eileen for always being there (everyday) supporting, encouraging and caring for dad these last 3 months. It was such a tough job, but no matter what, you were always there ensuring he was comfortable, fed and well groomed.

Together with Vicky and jimmy who summoned the extra help of private physio in the hope of defying all odds in resuming dad's independence.

I am so lucky to have such amazing older sisters with such big hearts, and awesome role models of the family. Through their actions I have grown even more respect and admiration for them! Dad is a lucky man having 3 angels supporting him all the way!!!

We are grateful of all the relatives who made it a priority to see dad everyday, from hospital to nursing home. They extended their hearts and hands ensuring dad was comfortable and healthy as can be.

Your presence and gesture were well received, dad was blessed with great brotherhood and a loving family!

Yesterday we had a family dinner, it didn't feel right without you being there. It seemed like just yesterday that we were all together having a family meal. You were always there for us. You gave us a warm home, a happy childhood which I will always remember.
