“ Life is just so short n can disappear in most unexpected moments, like a candle in the wind... to coin in what one said before! I'm shock n devastated to hear of your passing. I can recall the moments when we were travelling... n the times meeting up in Sydney. You r very much valued n treasured. RiP, Hazel

“ Dear Aunty (Lam Tai),

It is still very hard to come to terms that you've left us so soon. We are all deeply saddened, and know that the world just would not be the same without your gentle kindness, words of wisdom, thoughtful messages and visits, and just your wonderful company. You have been like family to us.

You will be dearly missed. We will treasure the memories of the times we have spent together.

*With deepest condolences,
Peter, Vivian, Aidan and families*

“ Dear George , Fiona , Matthew & Christina

I am so very sorry to hear of Purples sudden passing . It must have been such a shock for you all .

Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss . I will be there to pay my respects to Purples and mourn with you all , on Saturday

Since Philip passed , I appreciated that she kept contact periodically through What's App , particularly at Christmas , New year and CNY

She enjoyed her travels and photography - a few pics she shared over the years were from Sri Lanka , China and Japan

She also shared funny videos and lots of life wisdom , health stuff and even some wisdom about praying to God , and knowing that we are not alone , through our prayers !

I am sure she was a joy and a wonderful comfort as a wife , mother and mother -in-law , and no doubt will leave a big hole in your hearts . May the good Lord fill those empty places with His peace & comfort , and the knowledge that Purples lived life to the fullest , and has the love of a wonderful family ❤️

*Sincerely
Ros Chow (Fong)*
