“ Dear Clara, Shirley and Michael,

It is sad to lose a great and humble pastor, a bother and a caring mentor. We thank God for all our experiences interacting with Rev Jim. We can see Christ in his heart and God has been glorified through his life and his family. Theresa made a flower tribute to Rev Jim to express our gratitude to Rev Jim – "A beautiful heart with the seal of Christ".

P.S. We understood that Rev Jim's family members are allergic to flowers, thus, we will not bring the tribute to the funeral service but took a photo and posted it here to pay our tribute to Rev Jim.

In Christ

“ Dear Clara, Shirley and Michael,

As a fellow-worker of Rev. Jim in the last 10 years, I will always hold James in the highest esteem and dearest memory. I'm sure that our other fellow-workers and church siblings will do too.

What a sad loss for his family and friends and the church on earth! Yet on the other hand, the Lord must have loved James so much that He would call him back so soon, while the rest of us still have many years to complete our earthly sanctification. Look forward to see him in heaven.

*Yours prayerfully
