“ *Uncle Bob,
Thank you for the shopping centre chats. Randomly running into you over the years has been lucky opportunities for me. I will miss them and you.
Rest peacefully.*

“ Dear Bob,

I was deeply saddened to hear of your passing last Thursday.

Though our friendship was brief, our connection was profound. Our conversations were effortless, and I cherished how often our thoughts aligned. It's rare to find someone who shares such similar views, and I truly valued our friendship. Losing you feels like saying goodbye to a lifelong friend. You will be dearly missed, and your memory will stay with me forever.

“ Bob, no words can describe our sadness in your passing but it is a comfort to know that we will re-unite in the heavenly kingdom one day.

I will definitely venture to make your tofu fa, but it will never be the same...you will be the special ingredient in mine.

We are missing you...

“ Bob, you are a wonderful brother in law throughout our life together. Always helpful and loving and I miss you very much. I miss seeing you at mass sitting together at st. Kevin church and our many occasions of mahjong games followed by dinner together.

Rest in peace and when you see Hudson send our best to him.

Enjoy eternal peace. See you in our next journey. In prayer always

“ Dear Bob,
Good on you that you run faster than us to join the Heavenly feast.
Without your humour and laughters, our gatherings will not be the same. You were always the first one coming to our Happy Family dinner gatherings in order to share with us the best cuisine from your kitchen. Now you are sharing the eternity with the Lord. Good bye and hope to see you later...
