“ When I think of Grandfather Zheng, I see him watching over us, a gentle smile on his face. He was always kind and welcoming. One of my earliest memories of Grandfather Zheng is of him waiting patiently as we worked up the courage to say hello when we were young and shy. We will miss him.

“ Please accept our deepest condolences.
We are very sorry to hear of Uncle Tang's passing.
We remember Uncle Tang (our 棠表舅父) as a very wise gentleman, handsome and humble. He was always smiling when talking to people, looked after his family, and keen to learn new things even in his old age. He has been a role model for us. We will miss him always.

“ We are very sorry to hear the passing of Mr Shao Tang Zheng. Uncle Tang was our distant relative, my parents knew him back when they were all in KuangZhou, formerly called Canton. He came to Sydney in 1994. He and my parents and some other retired uni friends met up chatting and ballroom dancing very week until they were too fragile to do so.....Uncle Tang was a wise and smart person. He loved life, his family and grandchildren. It's everyone's loss to have lost him. We will always miss him!
