“ On the 14th of October 2022, it was the worst day for my family after I received the phone called from my cousin who informed me that our beloved Dai goo (Auntie) have passed away peacefully during her sleep, I was totally shocked, very sad that our family guiding star went to heaven too soon. I rushed to the hospital to see her for the very last time and when I saw her, I lost for words with many though going through my mind, my heart was totally broken and cried for our angel is gone.

We will never forget for how much Dai goo helped us and sponsor our whole family migrated to Australia, if wasn't for her our family probably still in China and as a farmer, she opens up many paths for us for a better roads ahead, we are always appreciated her efforts and determination to make sure we are out of poverty for a brighter future and prosperity, she the pillar of our family no matter how much we accomplish in our life we always maintained without her our life would be so much different, we always respected her and she forever remain in our heart.

I am going to miss her telling stories about her experience going through difficulty times, hard labour, Village life, determination and never give up attitude, a true fighter. My Dai goo is a very good communicator she constructure her sentences, plots to make her stories very flowing and interesting to listen to, whenever I listened to her stories it put my life into perspective, up lifting, happy, cherish and never takes things/life/situation for granted.

The most important motto's that I learn from Dai goo from my very young age, I never forget and have used it for my personal developments to benefits throughout my life as I recount:

Correct your mistake early as become harder to fix it down the track.

Always be grateful for the person who help you.

Don't show off as karma will get you at the end, just be humble.

Work hard to achieve your financial independence and never relay on others or government handout.

Don't use all your ammunition at once and if the plan didn't work out you lose out big time.

Be kind, polite and helpful good karma will follow you.

Our beloved Dai goo/ goo poh may you rest in peace, spread your wings wide roam freely, may your soul and spirit will go on for an eternity, you are always embedded in our heart, and never forget.
