“ At CanRevive we are saddened by the passing of Catherine.

Catherine had served as a volunteer of CanRevive for twenty years. During the time, she had been the tutor of an English learning group, co-facilitator of cancer patient support group and an assistant to the resource centre.

Her dedication, sweet nature, gentleness and smile will always stay in my memory.

*Rest in peace, Catherine.

“ Catherine was my foodie partner. We used to scurried the streets of Sydney for good food. We talked about arts and Jade. With twinkling eyes and sweet smiles, she is a real gem herself. People say the spirit of the dead will survive in the memory of the living. Catherine, you very much live on.

“ I'm so sorry to get the news.
Ms Chan was very kind and also a tough teacher ,She lead me in the English world. Still remember the stories of Sherlock Holm , Tom Sawyer , it was such a great time to sit in the class with Ms Chan.
Miss you so much!

“ Just received the very sad news. I enjoyed Miss Chan's English classes very much in my high school years. With her playful and interesting teaching, I would smile and want to learn more back in those days. Miss Chan will be deeply missed by those who know her, specially her family. May God be with you all. May all the precious moments and memories that you shared with Miss Chan, comfort you in such a difficult time. You will always be on my heart, Miss Chan. RIP.... your student Titania Yam

“ Dear Desmond & Family,

So .... sad for the loss of Catherine :( May the Lord's comfort and eternal hope be with you and the family!

Still reminiscing on the early years working with Catherine at CanRevive - her gentleness, humility, tireless effort in getting things properly done, smiles and the sense of humour, will always be in my mind!

Our deepest sympathy and condolences, Desmond.

Love

“ Rest in peace my beloved cousin Ping. It is natural for me to feel sad. I will always miss you.

As for Desmond, one of the most reassuring things in the world is knowing someone cares. We all care about you. Hoping you find comfort in the words of all who care so much about you, and that you know that you are always close in thought and heart of us.

With deep sympathy for your recent loss of your beloved wife.
