“ Siew Lan, my 2nd sister took very good care of my younger brother and me when we were young. She looked after him when he was sick and brought me for medical appointments. Knowing my medical condition, my sister helped to look after my daughter when she was young. Knowing I was bored at the hospital bed, she would wheel me down for a walk. I felt a great loss when my sister migrated with her family. We talked for long when she was recovering From her 1st 3 chemos while I was recovering from my surgery. Subsequently, she was weaker n had problem communicating over the phone. Ultimately, we communicated via whatsapp. My sister has very strong determination. Though she was very weak and tired, she whatsapp me till the day before she passed on. My sister, I love you and I miss you very much. See you in heaven!

“ Siew Lan was my Sunday school teacher when I was a kid. She was one who inspired me to walk an extra mile for those unprivileged. She taught me SOG 1 to 1 for at least one year. When I was then a poor & naughty kid who don't really mixed very well with others. I tend to make things difficult for her at times. For example, I told her I don't read traditional Chinese characters. Guess what, she walked the extra mile by translating the teaching materials to English by hand (word by word), and make sure that I understand what she taught. Her love for me has nurtured me to be who I am today. I am currently a pastor who did the same for my church members. Thanks to her inspiration. Her life may be short, but it is definitely a fruitful and meaningful one. May God comfort Chong Kuen and the rest of the family members. (?? from Singapore) 🌸

“ My most lingering memory of Mrs Lim is of when I asked about the hot water appliance in her kitchen: She explained purchasing her first one when Sophia was a baby, as it was quiet & would not wake a sleeping Sophia. It was obvious that she was a devoted mother, and a devoted wife also.

Mrs Lim was also a lovely, hospitable hostess, even asking after my fiance (before we were even engaged too!). I admired her ability to continue with her normal chores (I saw her composting frequently) & even visiting my church, despite her illness, without complaints or even showing when she was in pain.

I do wish I'd known her for more than the short time I spent with their family. I believe she enriched her daughter's life a great deal and this will be evident in the years to come.

My deepest sympathies to Joseph and Sophia and family. The Lord shine His face upon you and give you peace.

More than 35 years ago, the 3 sisters & 2 brothers were a regular sight at our place in Toa Payoh, Singapore. They were my Mum's students; so to speak.

I still grieve and weep since my Mum's passing barely a month ago. The first thought that came to my mind was: Siew Lan would see my Mum and exclaim: "Teacher". I recall this many a time.

For it is written and Jesus Himself said this: " My sheep hear my voice, I know them, they follow me, no one can snatch them out of my Hand"

They are now safe.

Glad to know many have come to believe in the Lord God Himself. Take care, Shalom.
