“ Dear San Yee, thks so much for all the love you gave me, all the kind support when my mum was ill...
You are now a happy angel no more pains.

You will be missed forever and always. The beautiful moments you shared with us will always speak of the great person that you were.
Rest in peace up in heaven!

Take care
Love,
Joannie

“ Siew Yong had the greatest courage and her last moments were spent organising stuffs and thinking of her family , dying with a heart full of peace and love. She doesn't want us to mourn her death as she repeatedly told me that she had lived her life to the fullest. She is kind and very generous especially to me & my family.....

Her last phone call to me was on the 8th evening. At that time she already was not in best of health but the moment she was able to speak on the phone she called me !

She doesn't want me to rush over but to stick to the plan and go to Melbourne for a short holiday at the end of this month. She was very generous and always booked nice lodging for us.

She loved travelling and I tagged along for many of her trips like New Zealand, Japan , Korea, Bangkok & all over Australia

She loved Malaysian food especially Ice kacang , Fried Kuey Teow, Tao Sa Peang, Satay and my bakings .

She liked Pandora more than anyone else I've ever met and my daughter and I are the privileged ones to be gifted many over the years.

So glad that Kenny & I managed to spend 2 weeks with her in June. I am missing her already especially now walking around her house without her here .

I am going to miss my counsellor on medical related issues, I am going to miss her weekly telephone calls, we used to talk for hours.....

God Speed, Siew Yong , Heaven only knows what's in store for you next!

May you rest in peace and may the perpetual light shine upon you always.

I love you

*Siew Leng

*Childhood friend from schooldays.
Memories of you will linger on and on my dearest friend.
My last conversation with you Siew Yong over the phone, you struggled to talk, the memory of it still so fresh in my mind.
You may be gone from my sight but you are never gone from my heart.*

*Rosalin(classmate n dear friend)
I cant remember my childhood schooldays with you. But i remember you in the upper secondary.
We became very close when we had our school reunions.
And we use to have lengthy phone conversation talking many matters.
When my husband passed away last november i remember your consoling words.
My last phone conversation with u was on 27 june 2022. You were going for your follow up and cudnt talk much.
Siew Yong, you are such a sweet heart, a caring n loving angel.
You will be deepy missed n fondly remembered by many.
Praying for the repose of your soul.
Love you forever. Will meet you one day in the eternal world. Bye*
