“ Suemin joined Cathay Pacific HR in Sydney about a year before I resigned there. I distinctly remember that she joined at a time when our HR was very low on resource while being highly demanded by colleagues. Yet when she stepped into our office, it felt like nothing could get in her way of getting everything done, while still being very supportive of all of us who were facing all kinds of problems, from work complaints to job crisis.

She was a blessing to us all and I will never forget her, along with all the positive energy that she inspired.

Suemin, where ever you are now, know that all of us whose life you've touched are carrying on better than when you found us, myself included. I'll never forget you and your inspirational energy.

“ Dearest Suemin,

I only just learned of your passing and want to add my deepest sympathies to your family.

You were a part of our Project Displaced family from April 2020, sharing your gift for helping others with more than 100 people who had lost their jobs because of the Pandemic. Every week you volunteered whatever time you could to helping those people, and even when you returned to work full time, you still took your lunch breaks to help even more people.

I've gone through all of your client records, and not surprisingly, every single person you helped left a message of gratitude and "5 stars". Your kindness, empathy, and expert professional advice was valued by every person you helped. You may not have realised it, but you saved so many people when they were at their lowest.

You will be missed by us here terribly, but we are so grateful for having known you and had the opportunity to share your gifts with so many people.

“ Dearest Suemin,

I remember when we first met we had long chat about our respective family origin from Northern Malaysia and ofcourse all the food we ate in Penang. There was never a dull moment in our conversation. It was always full of laughter and fun stories. I remember when we spoke last in April this year where a 10 minutes phone call for work ended up being an hour plus. You always made everyone feel comfortable and welcomed with your infectious smile.

To your mum, dad and Jansen

My deepest condolence to your family and for your loss. She was loved by everyone. Stay strong and I am sure memories of her will live thru others

“ A Niece Like You
Suemin

The last time we met was during Jamie's wedding and that was in year 2017. You offered your help with the food preparations and other miscellaneous things. During that time, you mingled with all your cousins and relatives. You are such a nice, warm, kind and thoughtful person. No words can describe the warm memories, the pride and gratitude that comes from having a niece to love and cherish, "just like you". You have always been a happy person and have also travelled to many places and are adventurous with food. Rest in Peace Suemin. You will be missed but will stay forever in our hearts.

Love, Uncle Fai & Aunty Teresa

“ Dearest Suemin,

I'm lost for words and as I close my eyes I hear you say "Dee breathe, breathe Dee". I miss you so much Suemin and I am eternally grateful for having met you. Coming into the office was always a pleasure as I knew we would have lots of conversations.

Thank-you for always having my back, supporting and believing in me and most of all teaching me new things. I'm nowhere near as good as you in excel but I've come a long way.

I'm going to miss hearing about Jensen's wedding, your Sunday family dinner's, your long walks to Bunnings, the latest sustainability initiatives from your local council and not to forget what T1 will be giving away for free!

Suemin, your uniqueness complimented our People Team. Your smile was infectious, your laugh was inviting, your love for your family was beautiful, your can do spirit was selfless, your everything completed us.

Fly high, until we meet again Dee xx

“ Dearest Suemin

I was so glad that we reconnected after COVID lockdown. I only wish we reconnected earlier...

I was so happy when you readily accepted Amy's invitation to join our belly dance class. I was so happy to see you each week. Even though you didn't believe you could do the movements, you were ready to wobble your belly with us and we achieved some "incidental exercises"!

I miss you very much. You have always been very kind to me. I will remember your beautiful smile 😊 May you rest in peace.

Here are some photos of us in June this year at the Vivd light show in the Taronga Zoo.

“ 2019.. That was the last time we met. We spoke about Sydney run. We talked about walking up the bridge. We spoke about things we will do on my next trip there.

My dearest cousin, you brought so much joy to our lives. Even though we were far, we love to hear about your new adventures and I love seeing your IG food photos.

My dearest cousin, we miss you already.

Forever in our hearts ❤️

Dear Aunty, Uncle & Jiansen

I met Suemin through our companies partnership with Cathay Pacific. I am very sad to hear of this news. Suemin was always wonderful to work with.

Sending prayers and love.

My deepest condolences.

“ Dear Aunty, Uncle & Jiansen.

I'm so saddened by Suemin's passing. I want to let you know she was a wonderful friend.

I have known Suemin from early primary years at Murray Farm, even remembering writing a note to her in year 2 when every kid was asked to write a note to their best friend in class and I chose Suemin. I also remember visiting your house all those years ago, and my parents knowing you through my friendship with Suemin. Jiansen, I certainly remember you as a kid, and was so impressed to see the man you have become!

So despite going onto our high school and University years in different places, we managed to stay in touch and by our third years of working, saved enough to go on a US trip. Suemin was a seasoned traveller by then already, but for me it the first trip abroad without parents. They only let me go because they knew I was going with Suemin!

We had an adventure of course, met lots of different people and did a ton of shopping, and those are the happy memories I will cherish.

I wish I had more time with Suemin in this lifetime, another chance to reminisce our school and travel days.

Her life will always set an example to me to live bravely, and to embrace family and friends with every chance I have- to live life with no regrets.

Her life will live on now through her generous donation of organs. Bless Suemin!

*Deepest condolences,
Janette Liu*

“ Suemin has always been a caring, wonderful and “loud” friend! She was never shy to share her thoughts and opinions on everything and would always be available to help a friend out when needed. I had the privilege to travel to Paris and Turkey with Suemin in September 2019 and I will always cherish these memories forever. Her spirit will live on in the memories of those living. Thank you Suemin for being a wonderful and caring friend 😊! I was going to say Rest In Peace, but I think in your case, it may be Rest and be loud and bubbly like you have always been 😂
