“ My condolences to Mrs Low, Wendy, Tony and Christopher on the sad loss of Mr Low. Mr Low was a big family man who gave generously of his time to support the Taiwanese community. Many childhood friendships were forged during the events he held as President of the National Taiwan University; whether they be cinema nights, BBQs at his home, road trips, or in his car as he drive a carload of children to and from Chinese School on Sundays. I will never forget the service he rendered Jeffrey and me by helping us sell our first home. His presence, smile and voice will be forever remembered.

“ We are truly saddened to hear the passing of Simon Low. My sincere condolence to his family, Anne, Wendy, Tony and Christopher. I understand there is no words of comfort to you under such a circumstance, knowing that he has been such an important role in your family.

It is consoling to know he has had an extremely productive life -- being a professional engineer, responsible husband and father, and enjoyed life to the fullness.

I first knew Simon since the early '70 when we both humbly catering at the restaurant, trying to make ends meet as a foreign student at UNSW. I subsequently moved to U.S. in the '80. But we kept very closed contact with each other. The last time we were together was at Bali in 2018.

Simon was a truly honest and decent individual. Despite facing many adverse circumstances, he was active in building friendship bridge between China and Australia. I have a lot of respect to him, and I look him up as my brother. In many ways, he set a hard example for us to follow.

We missed you, Simon. Rest-In-Peace.

“ Dearest Mr Low,

I thoroughly enjoyed our chats and genuinely appreciate your insight into a wide variety of subjects. You are at peace now and we will meet again at the perfect time.

With much love always,

Su

“ Dear Simon 雙在老同學,

You are sadly missed by your Taiwan Uni classmates all over the world. We have known each other for 60 years since Taiwan Uni days, we did our postgraduate at the Uni of NSW, doing the same course and supervised by the same Supervisor on our theses. What a coincidence ! Though I moved down from Sydney to Melbourne to work, we still kept in touch, sharing our views on Taiwan, Asia and the world. We also travelled together as recently as in 2019, visiting beautiful places in Shanxi 山西. I still remember you were planning our next trip to Guangdong, Fujian and so on. Unfortunately it did not eventuate due to Covid.

May you rest in peace!

一路走好!

“ *Dear uncle,
Though you have left this physical realm, your soul lives on and neither fire, nor wind, birth, nor death can erase your good deeds. Thank you for our connection in this life, and I hope we meet again in the next.
Love, Christina*

“ To my heroic 爸... You achieved so many firsts for the Low family - an impact that will be felt for many generations. You helped so many achieve so much, both for family and people who you had just met. You were generous beyond belief, whilst maintaining a 'stoic Asian male persona'. You had the softest heart and loved every Low family member so much. You are so missed beyond belief... I love you 爸. We love you 耶耶 ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
