“ Terry was an amazing lady. A gentle force that supported Johnson, Anita and Judy and their families. She will be deeply missed and remembered in our hearts. Deepest condolences to the Wong family.

“ I always remember Aunty Terry being very graceful. Uncle Johnson and Aunty Terry have been a very large part of my family's life, sharing the same wedding anniversary (10 January) as my parents, Tony and Betty Fong.

During the 60s when Uncle Johnson and my father were studying their CPA together at my parents' house, Aunty Terry would play mah jong with my mother and grandmother while baby Anita was in a bassinet.

One of the companies founded by Uncle Johnson and my father was named after Aunty Terry and my mother, Terbet Pty Ltd.

I'm sure the three of them are playing mah jong together in heaven. Or discussing tax law.

Sending our condolences to you all at this sad time as we remember our parents' pioneering achievements in Sydney's Chinese business community.
